We are so appreciative to all of you, whether you volunteered or financially supported Cathedral parish serving breakfast to 194 individuals at the Banquet. Pope Francis tells us, “You pray for the hungry. Then you feed them. That’s how prayer works.”

LITURGY GUIDE—Fourth Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

INTROIT

(At 9:15 & 11AM, the Introit is sung by the choir during the entrance procession.)

*Laetare Jerusalem: et conventum facite omnes qui diligitis eam: gaudete cum laetitia, qui in tristitia fuistis: ut exsultetis, et satiemi ab uberibus consolationis vestrae .
(Verse) Laetatus sum in his quae dicta sunt mihi: In domum Domini ibimus*

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast. (Verse) I rejoiced when it was said unto me: “Let us go to the house of the Lord.”

OPENING HYMN (4PM & 7:30AM) 731

DARWALL'S 148TH
Rejoice, the Lord is King

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jos 5:9a, 10-12

The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you.”

While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 34:2-7

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans. Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will bless the Lord at all times; praise of him is always in my mouth. In the Lord my soul shall make its boast; the humble shall hear and be glad R.

Glorify the Lord with me; together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord, and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R.

Look toward him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This lowly one called; the Lord heard, and rescued him from all his distress . R.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters: Whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us.
We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.
For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I will get up and go to my Father and shall say to him:
Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So to them Jesus addressed this parable: “A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, ‘Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.’ So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation.
When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any.
Coming to his senses he thought, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.”’ So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

The signs of spring are beginning to be evident all around us. This past week, for those of us who live in the Northern Hemisphere, we acknowledged the official beginning of spring by the vernal equinox which occurs when the sun crosses the equator line, heading north. As a result, the amount of daylight increases and the average temperature starts getting warmer. Also this past week I witnessed flocks of geese flying high overhead in their familiar V patterns heading north. I even heard the early morning serenade of my first robin this year. When I experience each of these signs of spring, it seems to put a little more spring in my step because I know that one of my most favorite times of the year is beginning to take place. This is a time when we see God's new creation appear all around us. Experiencing the newness of spring can easily point us to the source of all creation, our God who created all things that are good.

Reflecting on spring and creation coming to life serves as a reminder for us that we too are a new creation. St. Paul in this weekend's second reading states, "Brothers and sisters: Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away: behold, new things have come." Each year, for those of us who live in an area where there are four seasons, the leaves fall, the grass goes dormant and the flowers dry up. The old things have passed away. So it is with us as we go through this time of Lent. It's a time for the old bad habits and disordered desires to pass away and to let them die out with the season of Lent. But just as new life comes with the spring, so also new spiritual life comes with the resurrection of Jesus through the celebration of Easter and our Baptism. Through our Baptism we receive the gift of Christ and we become the new creation that St. Paul speaks of. I especially like the verse, "Behold, new things have come." If you are like me, the Lenten season can be more about letting the old things pass away rather than allowing new things to come. In other words, it can become more about giving up bad habits then starting new ones.

The key to grow in virtue or good habits is clear to St. Paul, "Whoever is in Christ is a new creation." The way we grow in virtue or holiness is to have more of Jesus in our life. We see this often as we minister to those who are incarcerated. The more they commit themselves to regular prayer and reading scripture, the more we witness a change in the way they speak and act.

As we perceive the beginning of spring and the signs of new growth around us, my prayer is that others will notice in us the new spiritual growth that comes because we are in Christ.
