DIOCESE OF SIOUX FALLS

Most Reverend Donald E. DeGrood, Bishop

LITURGY GUIDE—Fifth Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

INTROIT

(At 9:15 & 11AM, the Introit is sung by the choir during the entrance procession.)

*Indica me Deus, et discerne causam
meam de gente non sancta: ab
homine iniquo et doloso eripe me:
quia tu es Deus meus, et fortitudo
mea. (Verse) Emitte lucem tuam
et veritatem tuam: ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum, et in tabernacula tua.*

Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless. From the deceitful and cunning rescue me,
for you, O God, are my strength.
(Verse) Send forth your light and your truth; these have led me and brought me to your holy mountain and to your dwelling place.

OPENING HYMN (4PM & 7:30AM)

SOUTHWELL
Lord Jesus, Think on Me

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Is 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 126:1-6

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the Lord brought back the exiles of Sion, we thought we were dreaming. Then was our mouth filled with laughter; on our tongues, songs of joy. R.

Then the nations themselves said, “What great deeds the Lord worked for them!” What great deeds the Lord worked for us! Indeed, we were glad. R.

Bring back our exiles, O Lord, as streams in the south. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. R.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, bearing seed for the sowing; they come back, they come back with a song, bearing their sheaves. R.

SECOND READING

Phil 3:8-14

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God’s upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Praise and hon - or to you, O Lord Je - sus Christ.

Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful. R.

GOSPEL

John 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?” They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

CLERGY REFLECTION

A parishioner recently approached me and asked if I would share with the rest of the parish exactly what goes on in our elementary school building. I guess I took for granted that everyone knew that it's a busy place every day of the week. First and foremost, the school serves our Religious Education programs on Sundays during the school year. Classrooms from the first floor to the third floor maintain formation classes and sacramental preparation, including the adult program which meets in the Diocesan conference room on the third floor. Cathedral Women's Group meets in the school every Tuesday morning. Every day of the week from 8 until noon, the St. Joseph Montessori School – an endeavor that is completely parent operated and funded – meets in some of the classrooms. Every Friday morning the St. Margaret's Homeschooling group meets in the school and gym for classes and recreation, and then attends Noon Mass at the Cathedral. It's always so refreshing for me as pastor to see that bevy of kids in the Cathedral pews. Occasionally, the school is also host to our RCIA and young adult formation groups when we need to accommodate other events in the parish hall or St. Joseph room. Our St. Josephine Bakhita community utilizes specified classrooms on the weekends for choir practice, marriage preparation classes and a variety of meetings. The gym is constantly in use on weekends for large group gatherings and receptions of one kind or another. The Bakhita community holds memorial services in the gym, where deceased members of the community are commemorated according to the customs of the various cultures. Since before my time at the Cathedral, the school has been host to Harmony South Dakota, an ecumenical, non-profit program providing underprivileged children with a unique musical education. They utilize several classrooms and the gym stage every weekday starting after school. Harmony's mission is unique because the music is just a means to a greater end. That greater end is Harmony's mission: The program transforms participants lives through immersive music education and performance. Harmony's goal is to cultivate the life skills necessary to become healthy and contributing citizens, while fostering a "harmonious" community where everyone is known, loved, and valued. I have served on Harmony's Board for a time, and the value they bring to our campus is unprecedented. It's important to have a program like Harmony on campus, because it gives the Cathedral Parish an opportunity to provide an outreach ministry for underprivileged children that benefits the greater good of the community. Three times a year, they host Saturday morning concerts for the public to showcase how much the children learn over the course of a few months. So, the school building is utilized a lot! FYI: Our Psalm for this 5th Sunday of Lent sums up every Christian's feeling when they do good for the sake of others: "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!"
