THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God. On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, "I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth." The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 100:1-3, 5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

We are his peo-ple, the sheep of his flock.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Goument, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing for joy. R

Know that he, the Lord, is God. He made us; we belong to him. We are his people, the sheep of his flock. R

Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love. He is faithful from age to age. R

SECOND READING

Rev. 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Please Stand

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me. R.

GOSPEL

John 10:27-30

Jesus said:

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION MEDITATION (11:00 AM)

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

Arr: VIRGIL THOMSON (1896-1989)

My Shepherd will supply my need, Jehovah is his Name. In pastures fresh he makes me feed beside the living stream. He brings my wand'ring spirit back when I forsake his ways. He leads me for his mercy's sake in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death, thy presence is my stay. One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away, Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread. My cup with blessings overflows, Thine oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days, O may thy house be my abode and all my work be praise. There would I find a settled rest, while others go and come, No more a stranger or a guest, but like a child at home.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Vocations Prayer

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage to overcome all obstacles to their vocation. Give their parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood or religious life. Let Your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

May is the month for Ordinations

In recognition of the upcoming Priest Ordinations at the end of May we would like to encourage our parishioners to check out the registry lists for Deacon Nicholas Haiar, Deacon Mitchell McLaughlin and Deacon Zachary Schaeftbauer at the Mustard Seed (3709 S Grange Ave). Let's support our seminarians as they begin this new chapter in their lives as Priests of our Diocese! Thank you, Deacons, for following God's call.

Parish Office Controlled Access

My parish family, please note that we are implementing a new controlled access system for the sake of security at the Pastoral Center, which will also include the Parish Office. The new system will be enabled May 16th. The south door will have an intercom system inside the first set of doors with a doorbell for the "Diocesan Offices" and another for the "Cathedral Parish Office." You will need to identify yourself and the reason for the visit. The east door (off Duluth Avenue) will also have an intercom system. This is not an attempt to "screen visitors," but a necessary process to protect everyone involved. Thank you for your understanding. – Fr. Morgan

CLERGY REFLECTION

Today is the fourth Sunday of Easter which means we are approaching the half-way mark of the Easter season. That's right, Easter is not just a day, it is a season. In fact the season stretches from Easter Sunday all the way to Pentecost which is fifty days. It is interesting that the Easter season is actually longer than the season of Lent which is the season to examine our lives and to prepare for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As Catholics, what are we to make of this?

During Lent we strive to introduce a greater degree of discipline into our spiritual life. Maybe it involves what we eat, what we watch, how we pray or just generally how we spend our free time. Hopefully whatever we chose to do differently during Lent was successful in changing our lives in some way. This is not a time to backslide into our pre-Lenten ways but, rather, to draw closer to God by actively incorporating those Lenten acts of self-discipline into our daily lives.

During this season we are hearing many stories involving the Risen Christ and the Apostles activities following the Resurrection. Christ was anything but passive during this time period. The Acts of the Apostles tells us of many appearances of Christ to various sub-groups of the Apostles, all the Apostles together, other small groups of people and even one group of five hundred people. Then after he ascended back to his Father, he sent the Holy Spirit to give the rather passive, and very cautious apostles, the courage to place their lives on the line for the One who gave everything for them (and us).

We are not in a season to be cautious or passive. This is not the time to go back to our old ways. We don't have to wait until Pentecost for the Holy Spirit to come down upon us and inspire and motivate us to dedicate our lives to Christ. The Holy Spirit is here for us at all times. All we need do is ask for His help and be open to what our heart is telling us we are called to do, and who we are called to be.

Come Holy Spirit. Guide us to hear how Jesus is inviting us to follow him so that we may actively strive to know, and to do, the Father's will.
