THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Numbers 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses:

“Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them:

This is how you shall bless the Israelites.

Say to them:

The LORD bless you and keep you!

The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

May God bless us in his mer - cy, may God bless us in his mer - cy.

Text: Refrain from, Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your salvation. R

Let the nations be glad and shout for joy, with uprightness you rule the peoples; you guide the nations on earth. R

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing that all the ends of the earth may revere Him. R

SECOND READING

Galatians 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters:

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!”

So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONPlease Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Music: A. Gregory Murray, OSB, © 1958, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets;
in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son. R

GOSPEL

Luke 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds.

And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart.

Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

When eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

PROFESSION OF FAITHPlease Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

For many, the Christmas at Cathedral concert at the Cathedral is the beginning of their Christmas. At the least, it prompts them to continue their Advent journey with anticipation for the celebrations to come.

The Catholic Community Foundation of Eastern South Dakota takes on the momentous task of hosting the event – now in its 26th year. A shout out to Mark Conzemius and Jan Feterl and their staff for the impeccable job they do in presenting a professional production that involves countless hours of preparation and planning.

It also involves countless volunteers (including many of our parishioners) who work around the clock, and without exception, the tireless effort of the Cathedral maintenance crew. A shout out to Terry McMahon, Juan Carlos Rivera and Arlen Boso.

We can't forget that the Concert benefits the maintenance and upkeep of the Cathedral, as well as helping the Bishop Dudley House.

One of the highlights for me was the cello solo of Caccini's Ave Maria. Most of us are familiar with Schubert's version from weddings or funerals. Caccini's arrangement is haunting. Mary's submissive joy in the song is palpable, but also palpable in the rhythm and movement of the song is Mary's pensive reflection. She already knows the destiny of her Son. ...And Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart (Lk 2:19). The arrangement sweeps you away into the depth of the Angelical Salutation, or the prayer we call, the Hail Mary:

Hail Mary... Rejoice! Be glad! There is an amazing message coming to you from the Divine! Full of Grace... You are favored in a unique way by God! The Lord of all life is with you! The grace that fills your being has kept you sinless! Mother of God... You will bear a son who is both human and divine! Because you are the mother of Jesus, you are the Mother of God! You are the mother and model for the Church! Pray for us sinners... We are in need of your intercession for the sake of our redemption! Not only when we face the mystery of death, but in our everyday life as we struggle to be free from sin and faithful disciples of the Lord! Our pilgrimage is long and difficult, without your help, your intercession we may fail!

Mary was obedient to the word she heard from God; Mary was responsive in her active concern for all she encountered and endured; Mary's obedience and self-giving mirrors our Eucharistic celebration on this Solemnity.

Today, on this her feast day as Theotokos, Mother of God, we ask for her intercession for the holiness of the world, the holiness of our nation and the holiness of our families. Blessed are you, Mary, for saying "yes" to the angel, yes to God!

Fr. James Morgan
