I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 58:7-10

Thus says the LORD:

Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own.

Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed; your vindication shall go before you, and the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer, you shall cry for help, and he will say: Here I am!

If you remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech; if you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 112:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The just man is a light in dark-ness to the up-right.

Text: Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

A light rises in the darkness for the upright; he is generous, merciful, and just. It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice. R

He will never be moved; forever shall the just be remembered. He has no fear of evil news; with a firm heart, he trusts in the Lord. R

With a steadfast heart he will not fear. Open-handed, he gives to the poor; his justice stands firm forever. His might shall be exalted in glory. R

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, proclaiming the mystery of God, I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom. For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling, and my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of Spirit and power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples:

"You are the salt of the earth.

But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned?

It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world.

A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house.

Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

The theme of “salt and light” appears again as we celebrate St. Josephine Bakhita whose feast day is on February 08 and it has become international day for prayer and reflection on human trafficking. The power of the Spirit working in us and through us is meant to touch others’ lives with God’s loving concern and mercy. Through the intercession of St. Josephine Bakhita we are seeing that many great things are happening in the world.

Pope Francis is now in South Sudan from February 3-5. He has not been working and praying for nothing. South Sudan has been named as the preferable model of religious diversity and tolerance between religious communities in Sub-Saharan Africa.

The Islamic Council of South Sudan was selected to share its experience on religious coexistence and tolerance between different communities, cultures and denominations in the country. “Southern Sudan has won the honor of choosing the best country in Africa, south of the Sahara, as a model for peaceful coexistence between religions,” he told Eye Radio.

Everyone believes that the state of South Sudan would witness religious persecution because of the suffering of the southerners in Sudan from the Muslim regimes in Sudan, but the religious communities in South Sudan reflect the spirit of tolerance and brotherhood among them.

The Vatican Charge De’ Affaires in Juba is urging South Sudanese to forgive one another and reconcile ahead of Pope Francis’ planned visit. Monsignor Ionut Paul is also appealing for unity among the people of South Sudan. He encourages the citizens to build peace in the communities, saying this is the only way to bring stability to the country.

“We have to prepare that the message of the Holy Father reaches us, and this is very important as we only have two weeks left to prepare ourselves for his coming, in a spiritual way,” Paul said in an interview with Eye Radio. “Making peace in our family, making peace with our neighbors, making peace with the people around us, because only through people of peace, peace will come to this country and the blessing of the Holy Father Pope Francis and the blessing of the Archbishop of Canterbury and the moderator of the Church of Scotland will reach us truly.” “So I encourage you all to prepare spiritually for his coming, for the coming of the three religious leaders, making peace and reconciliation so that the message and the blessing can reach all of us, each one of us and all of us as a country.”

Pope Francis drew attention to the scourge of human trafficking on Saint Bakhita’s feast day and called upon government leaders worldwide to intervene and stop the trafficking of persons. The Pope prayed to Saint Bakhita and asked that she intercede and assist trafficking victims. We also pray for the peace of the world. St. Josephine Bakhita! Pray for us! Amen.
