The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR, FOLLOWED BY THE OPENING HYMN)

Esto mihi in Deum protectorem, et in locum refugii, ut saluum me facias: quoniam firmamentum meum, et refugium meum es tu: et propter nomen tuum dux mihi eris, et enutries me. (Verse) In te, Domine, speravi, non confundar in aeternum: in iustitia tua libera me.

Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Sirach 15:15-20

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him. Immense is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power, and all-seeing. The eyes of God are on those who fear him; he understands man's every deed. No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34 (Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless - ed are they who fol - low the law of the Lord!

Text: Refrains trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL, verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord! Blessed are those who keep his decrees! With all their hearts they seek him. R
You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept. May my ways be firm in keeping your statutes. R
Deal bountifully with your servant, that I may live and keep your word. Open my eyes, that I may see the wonders of your law. R
Lord, teach me the way of your statutes, and I will keep them to the end. Grant me insight that I may keep your law, and observe it wholeheartedly. R

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Brothers and sisters:

We speak a wisdom to those who are mature, not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away. Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

But as it is written:

What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him, this God has revealed to us through the Spirit.

For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*Please Stand*

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

"You have heard that it was said to your ancestors,
You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.

But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raqa,' will be answerable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to fiery Gehenna. Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court. Otherwise your opponent will hand you over to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny.

"You have heard that it was said,
You shall not commit adultery.

But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into Gehenna.

"It was also said,

Whoever divorces his wife must give her a bill of divorce.

But I say to you, whoever divorces his wife - unless the marriage is unlawful - causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors,
Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.
But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

PROFESSION OF FAITH*Please Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

There is a Balm in Gilead arr. Moses Hogan

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole. There is a Balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my works in vain, but then the Holy Spirit revives me soul again.

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul, you can tell the love of Jesus, and say, "He died for all."

CLERGY REFLECTION

What is Grace?

Some weeks ago I gave a homily where I equated the “light” of Christ with the “light” of grace. After Mass, I was asked by a parishioner if I would pen a letter explaining “grace.” What is it? We use that word so often that it has become a generalization for anything that has a “divine” attachment.

Remember, there are two kinds of grace – sanctifying grace and actual grace. Sanctifying grace stays in the soul. It’s what makes the soul “holy.” It gives the soul supernatural life. More properly, it is supernatural life. Actual grace, by contrast, is a supernatural push or encouragement. It’s transient. It doesn’t live in the soul, but acts on the soul from the outside. It’s a “supernatural kick in the pants.” It gets the will and intellect moving so we can seek out and keep sanctifying grace within our soul. In its natural state, our souls aren’t fit for heaven (Hence the need for Baptism and the other Sacraments). What we desire, by virtue of faith, is supernatural life, not just natural life. That supernatural life is called “sanctifying grace.” Yet, we can obtain supernatural life by yielding to “actual graces” we receive when we do God’s will, act upon His commandments. God keeps giving us these divine pushes, and all we have to do is go along.

For instance, the Lord moves us to repentance, and if we take the hint we can find ourselves in the confessional, where the guilt for our sins is remitted. Through the sacrament of penance, through our reconciliation to God, we receive “sanctifying grace.” But we can lose it again by committing mortal sins. To regain supernatural life, we have to receive “actual graces” from God. Once we have supernatural life, once sanctifying grace is in our soul, we can increase it by every supernaturally good action we do: receiving Communion, saying prayers, performing works of charity and mercy, etc. We must continually respond to the actual graces God is working within us, inclining us to turn to him and seek holiness. As Sirach says in our First Reading today: “If we choose to keep God’s commandments, they will save you.”
