LITURGY GUIDE - February 26, 2023

The First Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 AM THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR DURING THE ENTRANCE PROCESSION)

*Invocabit me, et ego exaudiam eum:
eripiam eum et glorificabo eum:
longitudine dierum adimplebo eum.
(Verse) Qui habitat in adiutorio
Altissimi, in protectione Dei caeli commorabitur.*

When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory, I will grant him length of days. (Verse) He who abides in the shelter of the Most High, shall remain under the protection of the God of Heaven.

OPENING HYMN (4:00 AM & 7:30 AM) 625

ST. FLAVIAN

Lord, Who throughout These Forty Days

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being.

Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?"

The woman answered the serpent:

"We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, 'You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 51:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 17

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Total Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1996, GIA Publications, Inc.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your merciful love; according to your great compassion, blot out my transgressions. Wash me completely from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. R

My transgressions, truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done. R

Create a pure heart for me, O God; renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence; take not your holy spirit from me. R

Restore in me the joy of your salvation; sustain in me a willing spirit. O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall proclaim your praise. R

SECOND READING

Romans 5:12-19

Brothers and sisters:

Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned - for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law.

But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. And the gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For after one sin there was the judgment that brought condemnation; but the gift, after many transgressions, brought acquittal.

For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ.

In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God. R

GOSPEL Matthew 4:1-11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." He said in reply, "It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone." Jesus answered him, "Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation

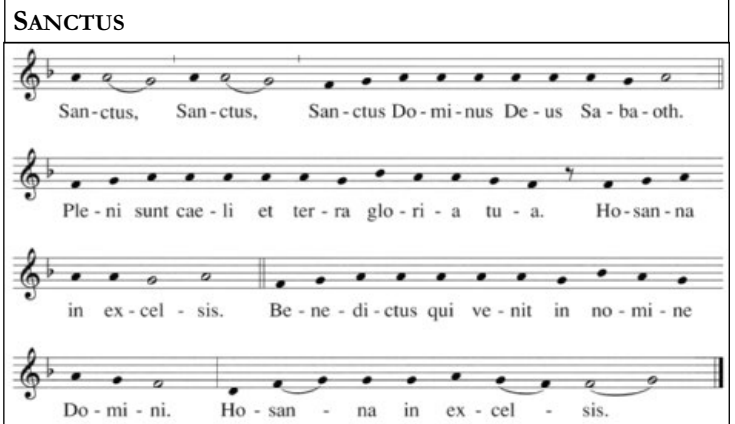

he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION MEDITATION (11:00 AM)

Ave Verum Corpus	William Byrd (1540-1623)
Ave, verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine: vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine: cuius latus perforatum unda fluxit sanguine: esto nobis praegustatum, in mortis examine. O dulcis, O pie, O Jesu, Fili Mariae. Miserere mei.	Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who having truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mankind, whose pierced side flowed with blood: May this be for us a foretaste of the Heavenly banquet in the trial of death. O sweet, O holy, O Jesus Son of Mary, have mercy on me.

ORGAN UPDATE

BY JARED OSTERMANN

You may have noticed a couple of weeks ago, on the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time, when we did not have choirs at our morning Masses. I gave our singers the day off that week, as I was out of the country visiting historic pipe organs in France and Germany. I took this opportunity, together with Robin Cote, our organ builder, Alex Ross, a worker from Robin's shop team, and Dr. Kevin Vogt, our Cathedral organ project consultant. The trip came at this somewhat inconvenient time in the midst of our choir year for a good reason – construction of pipes for our new instrument will start as soon as this summer! This workshop schedule meant that if we wanted to do any final listening and playing and discussing together as a team, we needed to take time now. Very soon, our instrument will begin to move past the planning stage and begin to take shape as a real physical instrument. The Juget-Sinclair team is finishing a monumental instrument for the Richmond, VA cathedral right now, and will begin transitioning to our project over the course of this year. By next year, the entire workshop and team will be focusing on Sioux Falls!

So the first update is simply that we are entering the home stretch with our project. Delivery is still about 2.5 years out (Fall 2025), but it will be a busy time, with a whole team of dedicated craftsmen working to build a world-class instrument for us in Montreal.

As far as our study trip itself, I have a few takeaways for you as parishioners:

First, we played on instruments dating as far back as 1715, and not only are they “still working” but they are wonderful to hear and play. There is no end in sight for these instruments, and they continue to inspire musicians, play for liturgies, and draw visitors from around the world. This is the kind of instrument we are building at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph. This is the reason we've hired world-class builders for our new instrument. We are thinking in centuries, not decades.

Second, yes – there really is a difference in the sound, when you hear the world's best instruments. The organs we visited are not just important because they are old! They are instruments, and they are important because of how beautiful they sound. It was very exciting to hear them, and to imagine a similar sound quality and beauty in our own church.

Third, I continue to be impressed with the knowledge and technical skill of the organ builders we have hired. As I tried to process hundreds of years of organ building tradition in two foreign countries, I was grateful to be able to discuss many questions, small and large, with them. The team at Juget-Sinclair is incredibly well-grounded in the historical tradition, and understands, on a technical and material level, what makes these great old world instruments so special. Now, all of that expertise is being directed toward our own Cathedral, as final decisions are made and the instrument begins to take shape. The result will be something wonderful, for our parish and the wider community.
