LITURGY GUIDE - March 5, 2023

The Second Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 AM THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR DURING THE ENTRANCE PROCESSION)

Reminiscere miserationum tuarum, Domine, et misericordiae tuae, quae a saeculo sunt: ne unquam dominantur nobis inimici nostri: libera nos Deus Israel ex omnibus angustiis nostris. (Verse) Ad te, Domine, levavi animam meam: Deus meus in te confide, non erubescam.	Remember your compassion, O Lord, and your merciful love, for they are from of old. Let not our enemies exult over us. Redeem us, O God of Israel, from all our distress. (Verse) Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you, let me not be put to shame.

OPENING HYMN (4:00 AM & 7:30 AM) ERHALT UNS HERR 781
The Glory of these Forty Days

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Genesis 12:1-4a

The LORD said to Abram:

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you.

"I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you."

Abram went as the LORD directed him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22
(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The word of the Lord is faithful, and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right, and his merciful love fills the earth. R

Yes, the Lord's eyes are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. He is our help and our shield. May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O Lord. R

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 1:8b-10

Beloved:

Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.

He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:
This is my beloved Son, hear him. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him.

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone.

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them,

"Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
 (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
 was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTIONS

The Bread of Angels Becomes Bread of Men

We all know the general customs of Lent—prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, plus abstaining from meat on Fridays. These are stable practices that are rooted in the Gospel and practiced throughout tradition. Yet we can easily forget their meaning.

Lent can be a particular time for us to focus on the Eucharist. The Church has undertaken a period to focus on a Eucharistic Revival. We should be increasing in our love for the Eucharist the entire year. Lent, however, gives us a particular time to focus on our belief in, and need for, the Body and Blood of Jesus.

As you know, there is an ancient practice of abstaining from meat on Fridays. It is required during Lent and actually encouraged throughout the whole year, although we can undertake alternate penances on Fridays throughout the year. From time to time, I have heard Catholics ridiculed for this practice of abstaining, particularly because fish can be more expensive than meat. What an incredibly American accusation—to focus on the economics of it! Now, there certainly is a component of almsgiving, so in that sense we should pay attention to our finances, but the abstinence from meat has nothing to do with money.

Christians have believed in the True Presence from the beginning—especially the faithful followers of Jesus who remain with Him in John 6. In order to give reverence to the true flesh of Jesus in the Eucharist, Christians would abstain from flesh meat on Fridays, the day of the Crucifixion. Unfortunately, much of this understanding has been lost and it is now just “something Catholics do.” We must reclaim the “Why?”.

When we deny ourselves a burger or the chicken sandwich that we crave on Fridays, may it bring to mind the Eucharist. The flesh of animals cannot save, but the sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross can. That is the flesh we should most long for. May our Lenten fasts and abstinence increase our desire to receive Him worthily in the Eucharist.

God bless you!
Fr. Klein
