LITURGY GUIDE - March 26, 2023

The Fifth Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 AM THE ENTRANCE PROCESSION IS ACCOMPANIED BY THE INTROIT SUNG BY THE CHOIR)

*Iudica me Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta: ab homine iniquo et doloso eripe me: quia tu es
Deus meus, et fortitudo mea. (Verse)
Emitte lucem tuam et veritatem tuam:
ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum, et in tabernacula tua.*

Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless. From the deceitful and cunning rescue me,
for you, O God, are my strength.
(Verse) Send forth your light and your truth; these have led me
and brought me to your holy mountain and to your dwelling place.

OPENING HYMN (4:00 AM & 7:30 AM) 621

SOUTHWELL
Lord Jesus, Think on Me

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD:

O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel.

Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people!

I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD.

I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings. R

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, that you may be revered. R

I long for you, O Lord, my soul longs for his word. My soul hopes in the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let Israel hope for the Lord. R

For with the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption. It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8:8-11

Brothers and sisters:

Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.

Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness.

If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die. R

GOSPEL

John 11:1-45

(If using short form omit bracketed text)

[Now a man was ill, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who had anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and dried his feet with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was ill. So] the sisters sent word to him saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." [The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." He said this, and then told them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him.” So the disciples said to him, “Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved.” But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, “Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him.” So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go to die with him.”]

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. [Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother.] When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him, “I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.”

[When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, “The teacher is here and is asking for you.” As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and went to him. For Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still where Martha had met him. So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, presuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping.] he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Sir, come and see.” And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him.” But some of them said, “Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?”

So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the dead man’s sister, said to him, “Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, “Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me.” And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, “Untie him and let him go.” Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTIONS

When considering what God would want me to share through this bulletin article, the word 'hope' came to mind. Hope, one of the three theological virtues, is something that we are all in desperate need of especially as circumstances in our world seem dire. One of the struggles we face in prison ministry is helping the incarcerated find hope when there appears to be little for their future. The challenge then comes to assist them in understanding where true hope originates from. Certainly they have hope of one day being released or perhaps a sentence reduction but this is only temporary. Similarly we may hope for situations in our life that are painful or hard will be relieved or resolved. St. Paul reveals the correlation between suffering and hope when he writes in Romans 5:3-5: "Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us."

It would be safe to say that many people in the world today are looking for hope. But any hope the world can give is filled with uncertainty. For example, we may hope for peace but there is no guarantee it will become a reality. The Mass readings this weekend reveal the source of a certain hope that awaits us all. A hope that has been given to us by God that as St. Paul says, "will not disappoint". The hope that our readings reference this weekend is the resurrection of the dead. The glory of eternal life that awaits us in heaven should be the source of all our hope. St. Paul writes in today's letter to the Romans: "If the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through the Spirit dwelling in you".

It was this hope of eternal happiness that enabled the martyrs to face their executioners with supernatural joy and forgiveness in their hearts. It was this hope that made the saints rejoice in their bodily sufferings and mortifications. And it can be this same hope that gets us through our often mundane lives with strength and perseverance. St. Paul makes clear that God's gift of the resurrection is offered to each and every one of us but only on one condition; if the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in us. Thanks be to God we received the Spirit of Christ at our Baptism! As we continue our Lenten journey towards the Easter Resurrection it is my prayer that the love of God will pour into our hearts through the Holy Spirit a hope that will not disappoint.
