THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trum-pets for the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, is awesome, the great king over all the earth. R

God goes up with shouts of joy. The Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God; sing praise! Sing praise to our king; sing praise! R

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God reigns over the nations. God sits upon his holy throne. R

SECOND READING

Ephesians 1:17-23

Brothers and sisters:

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might, which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Go and teach all nations, says the Lord;
I am with you always, until the end of the world. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them.
When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted.
Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.
And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Charles Wood
(1866-1926)

O Thou the central orb of righteous love, Pure beam of the most high, Eternal light of this our wintry world, Thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith, Hope soars above,

Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine, Gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine. Thy saints with holy lustre round Thee move, As stars about thy throne, set in the height of God's ordaining counsel, as Thy sight gives measur'd grace to each, Thy power to prove.

Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin, Our nature
all shall feel eternal day, In fellowship with Thee, Transforming clay to souls while ere unclean, now pure within, now pure within. Amen.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

The Rectory – Part 1: The Why

The history of the Cathedral rectory is directly tied to the building of the Cathedral itself. Both architects of the Cathedral – Masqueray and Lundie – had the rectory design in their sketches of the Cathedral project. The old parish home located on the north side of the Cathedral was demolished in 1918. The current rectory was built sometime between 1919 and 1922. The two flat roof additions were built in the 1940s. In describing the plans for the new Cathedral, Lundie wrote in 1918: “The parish house (current rectory) provides the office and living apartments for the pastor and assistants, and is tied with the balance of the Cathedral by means of cloisters... The parish house (current rectory) and sacristies add to the Cathedral a picturesque note.” It’s this sense of history and beauty that compels us as a parish to carry on the historical legacy of the Cathedral project: to honor the faithful parishioners before us who worked hard to provide for it. However, to do so out of nostalgia is impractical. The restoration of the rectory must have a realistic objective. When I arrived, I was surprised to find many priests (ours and others) who were in town for various reasons calling and asking for a place to stay. It’s the Cathedral, why not? Certainly not my idea exclusively, but bouncing it off others decided that once the historic rectory was restored, it would become a “house of hospitality” for priests, that is, a place where a priest could spend a night or two when in Sioux Falls. It would provide for greater fraternity and bonding for priests, even though our schedules have us coming and going. At the core of this, however, is that the Cathedral priests would be back where they belong, living and praying in the building intended for them. More to come on the rectory; stay tuned.
