LITURGY GUIDE - May 28, 2023

Pentecost Sunday

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

LAMBILLOTTE

Come, Holy Ghost

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, send out your Spir - it, and re - new the face of the earth.

Text: Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, how great you are. How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures. R

You take away their breath, the die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, and they are created, and you renew the face of the earth. R

May the glory of the Lord last forever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I will rejoice in the Lord. R

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

PENTECOST SEQUENCE

Come, Thou Holy Spirit, come! And from thy celestial home shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Thou Father of the poor! Come, Thou Source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine!

Thou, of comforters the best; Thou, the soul's most welcome Guest; sweet refreshment here below.

In our labor, rest most sweet; grateful coolness in the heat; solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine, shine within these hearts of thine, and our inmost being fill!

Where thou art not, man hath naught, nothing good in deed or thought, nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew; on our dryness pour thy dew; wash the stains of guilt away.

Bend the stubborn heart and will; melt the frozen, warm the chill; guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore and confess thee, evermore in thy sevenfold gift descend.

Give them virtue's sure reward, give them thy salvation Lord; give them joys that never end. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. R

GOSPEL

John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

InSpires
CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

The Rectory – Part II: The Restoration

As presented to parishioners during the InSpires presentations, the work on the rectory will be quite extensive. When you consider the building is 100 years old, it's not an exaggeration to say that everything needs to be replaced. There are big-ticket items, like the roof, which is currently being meticulously replaced. There is also the complete replacement of the mechanical/HVAC, and wiring and plumbing. So, in essence, the whole infrastructure must be replaced. One of the challenges from the beginning was finding a space for the garage. Fortunately, the connected flat-roof building on the east side will be able to serve that purpose. The brick portion of the building has been demolished with the exception of the back wall. The limestone was carefully removed, and will be reused on the exterior of the garage in order to maintain the consistent, historical look with the rest of the rectory and

Cathedral. Most of the rooms from the old rectory will retain their historic function, for example, the dining room, the kitchen, the sitting room, and all the bedrooms on second and third floors. All will be restored or remodeled. One addition on the first floor is a chapel in the northwest quarter. Priests need a place for quiet, undisturbed contemplative prayer, and a place to say Mass on their day off. There will be six bedrooms in all: three on second floor – three suites for resident priests, including a handicap accessible bedroom;

and three on third floor for visiting priests, bishops or seminarians. Yes, with this design, there is need for a “residential elevator.” When will the restoration/remodel be completed? By the grace of God, and everyone's generosity, by July of 2024. Please, pray for the success of the InSpires Campaign! Come, Holy Spirit!
