FIRST READING

Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets.

Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD."

Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."

Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever; and blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

R

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory, praiseworthy and glorious above all forever. R

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R

Blessed are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice.

Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*Please Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come. R

GOSPEL

John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

PROFESSION OF FAITH*Please Stand*

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

In Spires

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Music and Liturgy Endowment - We are in the midst of the Cathedral In Spires Capital Campaign, and by this time you have probably heard or read a good deal about the rectory and the pipe organ. The third major element of the campaign is the expansion of the music program, through the hiring of an Assistant Music Director, and the building of an endowment to sustain this growth for years to come. While an assistant will help me with liturgical playing and choral accompanying, the main focus of the new position will be building our children's music program. To build children's music in a well-organized, sustainable way, we need a musician who can focus on this area full-time, and bring expertise in children's pedagogical methods to our parish. It sounds a bit cliché to say "the children are our future," but this is certainly true! We need to train children as musicians, so that in the years to come they will have the skills to contribute and lead as cantors, choir members, and organists here or in their own parishes. This is critical to our local parish, to our diocese, and to the wider church. I also like to point out that "the children are our present!" Over the years we've had children as young as 14 in the Cathedral Choir, and other teenagers serving as cantors and instrumentalists. You may not know it, but we've even had talented teenagers play the organ several times when we needed a substitute! And you may have already heard our children's choir singing at Mass at the Cathedral. Well-trained and skilled children start to contribute much sooner than most people think, and as the program grows, you will continue to see young musicians playing a much greater role, either in their own choirs, or with our adult choirs or as organists and instrumentalists. Over the next two years, you will be able to watch the rectory and then the pipe organ as they are built. These are physical, architectural achievements that will be obvious to you and to anyone visiting the Cathedral. But maybe even more exciting than either of those things, and more hidden from view, will be the growth of our children's musical offerings, as we begin to train the next generation of liturgical musicians here at the cathedral. Thank you for being a part of that, and for contributing to the success of the campaign!-Jared Ostermann
