LASS UNS ERFREUEN
All Creatures of Our God and King

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight. Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will sing forever of your mercies, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your fidelity. I have declared your mercy is established forever; your fidelity stands firm as the heavens. R

How blessed the people who know your praise, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice their joyful acclaim. R

For you are the glory of their strength; by your favor it is that our might is exalted. Behold, the Lord is our shield: He is the Holy One of Israel, our king. R

SECOND READING

Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God.

Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. R

GOSPEL Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple— amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Lately, I have found myself dealing with a series of crises in my life – personal and pastoral. My usual “go-to” prayer is the “Surrender Novena” by Don Dolindo. However, there is another devotion that is just as powerful and underrated: Mary the Mother of Jesus as “Untier of Knots” or “Undoer of Knots.” The first reference to Our Lady as Untier of Knots is attributed to St. Irenaeus (201-310 AD), Bishop and Martyr. In his ancient text Against Heresies he wrote: “The knot of Eve's disobedience was loosed by Mary's obedience. For what the virgin Eve had bound fast through unbelief, this did the virgin Mary set free through faith.” These “figurative knots” of disobedience and sin are undone by Mary in heaven. Mary was given the task to participate in Christ's redemptive action, allowing us to ask for her intercession.

For centuries, devotion to Mary under this title “Untier of Knots” was localized to Germany. The devotion gained attention in 1612, when a married couple of German nobility decided to divorce. To save their marriage, the couple decided to seek the counsel of Father Jakob Rem, a Jesuit priest. It was believed that Father Rem had been experiencing apparitions of Mary in prayer. On the day of their last visit together, September 28, 1615, Father Rem had been praying in the chapel of the monastery before an image of the Virgin Mary. When the two men met, the husband gave his wedding ribbon to Father Rem. (In the marriage ceremony of that time and place, the maid of honor joined together the arms of the bride and groom with a ribbon in order to represent their invisible union for the rest of their lives.) In a solemn ritual act, Father Rem took the wedding ribbon from the husband and lifted it up, while at the same time untying the knots of the ribbon one by one. As Father Rem smoothed out the ribbon, it became intensely white. Because of this happening, the couple were able to avoid a divorce and continue their marriage. Some years later, a painter, Johann Melchior Georg Schmittndner, was commissioned to provide a painting for the family altar. He decided to base his painting on the story of Father Rem and the wedding ribbon. Schmittndner depicts the Virgin Mary as she is untying the knots of the ribbon of married life. Angels assist the Blessed Mother; one presents the knots of our lives to her, while another angel presents a ribbon, freed from knots, to us.

The devotion to “Mary, Untier of Knots” was not well known until recently. In the 1980's it was brought to Argentina by Archbishop Jorge Mario Bergoglio, S.J. (now Pope Francis), where it remains particularly popular.

If your life, like my life, seems to be a bundle of knots lately, perhaps it is time to ask the Mother of Jesus to untie them for us through her powerful intercession. Mary, untie them, please!
