14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING HYMN
488

ITALIAN HYMN
Come, Thou Almighty King

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

FIRST READING

Zechariah 9:9-10

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!

See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass.

He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; the warrior's bow shall be banished, and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.

His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14
(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will extol you, my God and kind, and bless your name forever and ever. I will bless you day after day, and praise your name forever and ever. R

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R

All your works shall thank you, O Lord, and all your faithful ones bless you. They shall speak of the glory of your reign, and declare your mighty deeds. R

The Lord is faithful in all his words, and holy in all his deeds. The Lord supports all who fall, and raises up those who are bowed down. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Brothers and sisters:

You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed:

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.

Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father.

No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations -

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage to overcome all obstacles to their vocation in life. Give their parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God’s service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood or religious life. Let Your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

On July 11, 1833, a young priest named Dom Prosper Gueranger celebrated Mass for the feast of St. Benedict at his Benedictine Monastery in Solesmes, France. That may seem normal—we're used to celebrating the saints and celebrating their Masses on their feast days. In 1833, however, this was a novelty of sorts. After the French Revolution, religious life was abolished in France, where Catholicism had once laid the foundation for their culture. The thought was, "If you're not contributing to the nation, you're against us." Fear gripped those in power. The fear was that there were people willing to give allegiance to something, or rather Someone, other than themselves. The solution was to dissolve them, or to send them away, or in some instances, to add them to the martyrology.

Dom Gueranger, a young diocesan priest, saw the direction of the culture desired to preserve what had been passed down for almost two millennia. Growing up under the shadows of the 1,000 year old monastery in Solesmes, he desired to restore religious life within those stone walls.

Some people thought he was crazy, overly zealous, and unreasonable to restore an old order where the life predominantly consisted in an enclosed life of chanting the psalms and the Mass. He was determined, however, if it was the will of God. When asked why he thought this would work, he said, "The need of the Church seemed to me so urgent, the ideas about true Christianity so falsified and so compromised in the lay and ecclesiastical world, that I felt nothing but an urgency to found some kind of center wherein to recollect and revive pure traditions."

Dom Gueranger, along with St. Benedict, whose feast is this Tuesday, knew that "culture" depended on "cult". What or whom we worship determines what culture values. While we can fall into the same mindset of Gueranger's contemporaries—ideals of worldly efficiencies or earthly prosperity—we must be reminded by these two remarkable men: Nothing is more important in this life than to know, love, and serve the Lord. As things continue to rapidly change in our world, may we remain rooted in the One who remains the same. May our worship be sincere and our work be pure.

St. Benedict, Pray for us!
