SAINT JEAN MARIE VIANNEY

Prayer for Priests by Saint John Vianney

God please give your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; Being examples of humility and poverty; Shining models of holiness; Tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; Zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

St. John Vianney, Patron of Parish Priests, pray for us!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him:

"Because you have asked for this - not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right - I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130
(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, I love your com - mands, I love your com - mands.

I have said, "O Lord, my portion is to obey your words." The law from your mouth means more to me than large quantities of silver and gold. R

Let your merciful love console me by your promise to your servant. Show me compassion, that I may live, for your law is my delight. R

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold, why I rule my life by your precepts, and hate false ways. R

Your decrees are wonderful indeed; therefore my soul obeys them. The unfolding of your word gives light, and understanding to the simple. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters:

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away.

Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied,

"Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Several times in the Gospels Jesus talks about his message being divisive, especially in a family. No doubt he experienced that in his own day and it is as true as ever today. The proclamation of the kingdom of heaven causes divisiveness because everyone does not receive the message the same way. To be clear, Jesus holds the family sacred and he desires all of us to spend eternity with him in heaven. But let's face it, not everyone shares that same desire. And since we all have a free will, we get to choose what we believe and how we live.

This is a painful reality for true followers of Jesus because we desire not only to spend eternity with Jesus in heaven, we also desire those we love to be there with us. But many are not willing to believe in Jesus and are unwilling to live as he taught us to live. Family members will often drift apart from a common faith Tradition and it often results in arguments and conflict.

We are called to live out our faith and to lead others to Christ by the way we live. When others reject our beliefs and choose a different path, it hurts. Especially when those people are the ones we love most. How should we react to this rejection? We should remain faithful to our God in all things. We should not compromise our beliefs in order to keep peace in the family and we should not be hesitant to live out our faith in the presence of the unbelievers we love. When others reject God and all that Jesus taught, we experience some of the same pain and suffering Jesus experienced on his way to the cross. For many of us that is the cross Jesus asks us to pick up and carry as we follow him. And there are a couple other things we are called to do as we are carrying that cross. We are called to never stop loving the unbelievers in our life and to continue to pray for all those who are presently rejecting God just as Jesus did when he was hanging on the cross.

It can be so frustrating when we are unable to change the self-destructive choices made by those we love. But we must also remember that we are not God. We are His followers, and we follow Him because we know He is the way, and the truth and the life and that anything is possible for God. Have a blessed week!
