LITURGY GUIDE - August 6, 2023

Transfiguration of the Lord

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spi - rit, in the glo - ry of...

'Tis Good, Lord, to Be Here

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a - dore you, we glo - ri - fy you, we give you thanks for your

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

As I watched:

Thrones were set up and the Ancient One took his throne. His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool; his throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire.

A surging stream of fire flowed out from where he sat; Thousands upon thousands were ministering to him, and myriads upon myriads attended him. The court was convened and the books were opened.

As the visions during the night continued, I saw:

One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; When he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, The one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 97:1-2, 5-6, 9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord is king, the Lord most high o - ver all the earth.

Text: Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL, verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1995, GIA Publications, Inc.

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice; let the many islands be glad. Cloud and darkness surround him; justice and right are the foundation of his throne. R

The mountains melt like wax before the face of the Lord, before the face of the Lord of all the earth. The skies proclaim his justice; all peoples see his glory. R

For you indeed are the Lord, most high above all the earth, exalted far above all gods. R

SECOND READING

2 Peter 1:16-19

Beloved:

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. Moreover, we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. R

GOSPEL Matthew 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Much is being written about the movie "Oppenheimer." I have not seen the movie but those who have seen it say it is a serious movie that challenges you to think. Peggy Noonan, of the Wall Street Journal, even wrote an op-ed on the film, extolling its brilliance while expressing her disappointment that the movie did not go far enough depicting the inner struggles of the man who invented "the bomb." As Noonan states: He (Oppenheimer) would split the atom, create the bomb, bring the peace. But the bomb was—is—a moral horror. So to be great, to achieve his destiny, he had to do something terrible. He did. That was his tragedy...A lifetime wandering around quoting, "I am become death, the destroyer of worlds."

Some history is in order: J. Robert Oppenheimer was a theoretical physicist who led the government sponsored program (the Manhattan Project) tasked with designing the first nuclear weapon. America was in the thick of World War II then, and our leaders were intent on developing a weapon that would end the war quickly, especially the war in the Pacific where the death toll of soldiers and civilians was becoming astronomical. After developing and testing the bomb, it was dropped on the large city of Hiroshima, Japan on Aug. 6, 1945. As Noonan states, quoting from a magazine article of the day: There was no sound of planes. The morning was still; the place was cool and pleasant. Then a tremendous flash of light cut across the sky...It seemed a sheet of sun. There was no roar; almost no one in Hiroshima recalls hearing any noise of the bomb. But they heard it 20 miles away. Clouds of dust turned the morning into twilight. The devastation was incalculable. The city was completely leveled. Somewhere between 90,000 to 140,000 thousand people died in the explosion. Countless others would die later from radiation poisoning. The increase of cancer and birth defects grew exponentially in the years following.

Given the gravity of the times, it probably didn't dawn on government officials that the day they chose to drop the Atom Bomb was also the Feast of the Transfiguration. The irony is not lost on us. These two opposite events can help us put the reality of God's glory and human sinfulness into perspective: First, is the brilliant light radiating from Jesus as He is "transfigured" on the mountaintop, and the cloud from which is heard the words of the Father: This is my beloved Son; listen to Him. Juxtapose this scene with the dropping of the atomic bomb: A blinding flash of light, a dense, dark, demonic, mushroom cloud, and the greatest devastation humankind has ever seen. The Lord Jesus "transfigures;" fallen humanity "disfigures." Christ is the radiant light of life; human fallibility is the radiant light of death. God has created us in His image and likeness, and when we act as His beloved maximizing that image and likeness...we "transfigure" instead of "disfigure." The Father reveals to us our true selves in the likeness of His Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ.
