THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter.
Then the LORD said to him,
"Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD;
the LORD will be passing by."
A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—
but the LORD was not in the wind.
After the wind there was an earthquake—
but the LORD was not in the earthquake.
After the earthquake there was fire—
but the LORD was not in the fire.
After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound.
When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, let us see your kind - ness, and grant us your sal - va - tion.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will hear what the Lord God speaks; he speaks of peace for his people and his faithful. His salvation is near for those who fear him, and his glory will dwell in our land. R

Merciful love and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have kissed. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth, and justice look down from heaven. R

Also the Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase. Justice will march before him, and guide his steps on the way. R

SECOND READING

Romans 9:1-5

Brothers and sisters:

I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie; my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart.

For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh.

They are Israelites; theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; theirs the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for his word. R

GOSPEL Matthew 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified.

"It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

He said, "Come."

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

After they got into the boat, the wind died down.

Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

The first time I heard properly the word of God a reading from the (1st book of Kings 19:9-13) was in my home village. I and my best friend Joseph Lorenzo were grade three students. In this reading Prophet Elijah was told to go out to wait for God. The story was so scary and a man who was reading it was also reading in such scary way. When he said; "A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the Lord but the Lord was not in the wind" we both started shivering in behalf of Prophet Elijah as if it was happening at the moment and we can't wait to hear what was going to happen.

In Matthew's Gospel reading it tells that, Jesus during the fourth watch of the night, he went toward his apostles, walking on the sea. It is really impossible for someone to walk on the sea but if we open our eyes of the faith we can still see that living in this world is like we are walking in an ocean of sin. We could say that the Church being and surviving in this generation is a great miracle.

The greatest miracles in the Bible prove the greatness and power of God. God who performs miracles; He displays His power among the peoples. See (Psalm 77:12-14). A miracle is an unusual manifestation of God's power in which He intervenes in human affairs. Miracles display God's power, inspire wonder, and act as signs that prove who God is or substantiate His message to the world. A miracle is a supernatural event that reveals or confirms a specific divine message.

In the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord in my homily I shared about revelation of God through miraculous way and I told this; There was a man I met in a shopping mall and he asked me if I am a Catholic priest and I said yes I am. He goes and said well my question for you is that many protestant pastors and prophets work hard to perform miracle but you Catholics don't, what is the reason? And I told him that we do perform miracles every single day during consecration we change bread and wine to the body and blood of Christ. Every single day we have real Jesus on the altar and all the members of our church when they receive Holy Communion, they touch the real Jesus. There is nothing greater than this miracle. I don't know about others, maybe they don't have real Jesus at hand that is why they wanted to bring down Jesus by force using unknown language. We should know receiving Holy Communion is a great miracle.
