LITURGY GUIDE - August 27, 2023

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spi - rit, in the glo - ry of...

FIRST READING

Isaiah 22:19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace:
"I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station.

On that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah;

I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority.

He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut, when he shuts, no one shall open.

I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 138:1-2, 2-3, 6, 8

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, your love is e - ter - nal; do not for - sake the work of your hands.

TEXT: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart; you have heard the words of my mouth. In the presence of the angels I praise you. I bow down toward your holy temple. R

I give thanks to your name for your merciful love and your faithfulness. On the day I called, you answered me; you increased the strength of my soul. R

The Lord is high, yet he looks on the lowly, and the haughty he knows from afar. O Lord, your merciful love is eternal; discard not the work of your hands. R

SECOND READING

Romans 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!

How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!

For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?

Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid? For from him and through him and for him are all things.

To him be glory forever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 16:13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

DIX
For the Beauty of the Earth

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

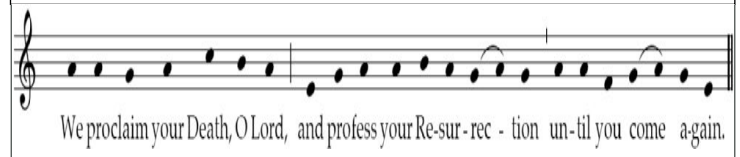

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

SANCTUS

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

AGNUS DEI

ECCE AGNUS DEI

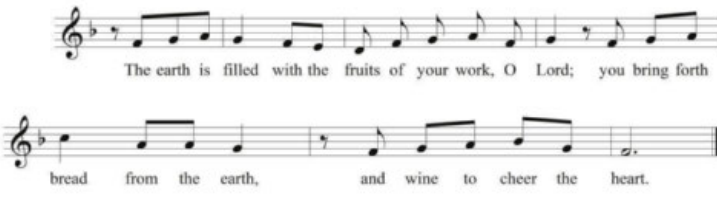

Celebrant: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

HOLY COMMUNION

All Catholics who have prepared themselves to receive Holy Communion are invited to come forward. Our brothers and sisters of other faiths are invited to approach with their arms crossed over their chest to signal their desire to receive a blessing.

DECLINE TO SIGN

RESPECT LIFE & BE INFORMED VOTERS - don't be fooled to sign the petition around town to add the initiated Amendment to establish a "Right to Abortion" in our SD State Constitution to the ballot. The proposed SD Constitutional Amendment would be one of the most extreme abortion laws in the nation. Abortion from conception to birth would be legalized. For the specifics of this amendment go to: lifedefensefund.com

CLERGY REFLECTION

Who do you say that I am?

Who am I? In general terms, think of the many different ways we could answer this question. Our answer would likely include our name, family, address, place of birth, where we work and maybe even our hobbies, all of which would give a basic understanding of who we are. But what if we asked a friend or a close acquaintance to share who they think we are? In describing us, would our Christian faith be a significant part of their description of us or would it even be mentioned?

Peter, in this weekend's gospel from Matthew, receives from Jesus a clear understanding of who he is. "You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my church." Peter's new identity originates directly from his relationship with Jesus. Apart from Jesus he is still Simon the fisherman. When he is clear on who Jesus is, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God", Peter then has clarity on who he is through God's eyes.

I find this same scenario to be true in my own life. Prior to having a personal relationship with Jesus, I would describe who I was by using the general terms that I mentioned above-focusing primarily on my family, work and personal interests. But after opening my heart to a relationship with Jesus, the answer to the question "who am I" changed dramatically. I became Catholic. Even though I was baptized Catholic as an infant and raised by devote Catholic parents, my faith did not play a significant role in my life. Rather it was something I did out of obedience to my parents and God rather than being in relationship with him. So when I say that I became Catholic, I mean that I embraced in my heart the Church, the Body of Christ, founded upon Peter and the Apostles, the first Pope and bishops of the Church. It meant living out my faith in full communion with all that Jesus established through the Magisterium of the Church.

As our Christian culture and moral beliefs come under constant attack from all sides, it might be a good time to clarify who we are and how we live our lives. In other words, if we profess to be Catholic, do our actions reflect what we believe or are we Catholic in name only? As things become more divisive in our society, being lukewarm in our faith will make it difficult to choose between good or evil. The one way we can know for certain of who we truly are is by remaining steadfast in our relationship with Jesus and anchored in his one holy, catholic and apostolic Church, because it is promised "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it."
