LITURGY GUIDE - September 17, 2023

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR, FOLLOWED BY THE OPENING HYMN)

Da pacem, Domine, sustinentibus te, ut prophetae tui fideles inveniantur: exaudi preces servi tui, et plebis tuae Israel. Verse: Laetatus sum in his quae dicta sunt mihi: in domum Domini ibimus.

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel. Verse: I rejoiced when it was said unto me: "Let us go to the house of the Lord."

Musical score for the Introit with lyrics: us; you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer; you are sea-ted at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men. A-men.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Sirach 27:30 - 28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight.

The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail.

Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.

Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?

Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins?

If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins?

Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin!

Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalms 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Musical score for the Responsorial Psalm with lyrics: The Lord is kind and mer-ci-ful, slow to an-ger, and rich in com-pas-sion.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name. Bless Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits. R

It is the Lord who forgives all your sins, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with mercy and compassion. R

He will not always find fault; nor persist in his anger forever. He does not treat us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our faults. R

OPENING HYMN 614

CRUCIFER Lift High the Cross

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Musical score for the Gloria with lyrics: Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, hea-ve-nly King, O God, al-migh-ty Fa-ther. Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so strong his mercy for those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far from us does he remove our transgressions. R

SECOND READING

Romans 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters:

None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord; love one another as I have loved you. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?"

Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.

That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants.

When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt.

At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.'

Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan.

When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'

But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt.

Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair.

His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?'

Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt.

So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Offertory Anthem (11:00 AM)

SAMUEL S. WESLEY
(1810-1876)

Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee.
The darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day. The darkness and the light to thee, are both alike.
God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forevermore.
Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee.

CLERGY REFLECTION

"How good and how pleasant it is, when brothers live in unity."

Spending time in people's homes, spending time with kids at school, being a brother myself, and having lived in seminary for 8 years, I know that it is not an easy thing to always live in unity under the same roof. Yet, this psalm rings true—how truly good and pleasant it is when there is a shared life that fosters unity.

One of Bishop DeGrood's desires for Set Ablaze is that priests have the opportunity to collaborate more together, and in some cases, where possible, to live together. My assignment is a bit unique, and I am living with Fr. Michael Kapperman, our vocation director, along with 4 of our seminarians. The Church has been asking for a period of time (often times 1 year) at the beginning of seminary formation to do what is called the propaedeutic stage. The seminary is a place to help a man hear God's voice, form the man to be able to respond to His call, and if continuing on towards priesthood, to form him to be a faithful priest for the Church. Yet the Church has recognized that in our present age, many people, especially young people, are plagued by the noise and confusion of society, often times at no fault of their own. The propaedeutic stage is meant to be a year stepping away from the world and focusing on human and spiritual formation. They have some academic work, but very limited in comparison to the normal load to come in seminary. They have some exposure to ministry at parishes and schools, to expose them to some aspects of priestly life. Yet their biggest obligation is to focus on their own human and spiritual growth. They all have a fast from technology throughout the year, have a daily holy hour and Mass together, spiritual reading, cooking for the house, and many other things that will help them to grow as a man and as a son of God.

It has been a gift to be living with them and with Fr. Kapperman. As a priest, I have found great friendship with brother priests, and I am glad to be able to witness that to these seminarians. You may see them at the 4:00pm Mass on Saturday afternoons serving for the Bishop. Please pray for them, that they may have a fruitful year, and that we may experience the true goodness of brothers living in unity.

God bless you,

Fr. Tony Klein
