FIRST READING

Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near.

Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord is near to all who call on him.

I will bless you day after day, and praise your name forever and ever. The Lord is great and highly to be praised; his greatness cannot be measured. R

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R

The Lord is just in all his ways, and holy in all his deeds. The Lord is close to all who call him, who call on him in truth. R

SECOND READING

Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

Brothers and sisters:

Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain.

If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit.

Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Open our hearts, O Lord, to listen to the words of your Son.

R.

GOSPEL

Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard.

After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off.

And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise.

Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?'

They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.'

He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.'

When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.'

When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage.

And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.'

He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go.

What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?'

Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Years ago I was nearing the end of a very busy day which included driving many miles between meetings in two different states. It was about 9:00 at night and I was still driving toward my destination for the night. I was on a two lane road, in a rural area of Minnesota, and it was dark. I had been driving for quite some time and had sort of slipped into semi-consciousness as can happen in such circumstances. All of a sudden the car phone rang, shaking me out of my stupor. I answered the phone and the first words I heard on the other end were "Where are you?" I looked around me as I continued down the road and answered honestly; "I don't know" I said.

In pondering what to write about this week, this episode came back to me, seemingly out of nowhere.

Although I have been asked this question on more than one occasion, in various circumstances, the question has been echoing around in my head and my heart today. How many times have I found myself virtually sleep-walking through parts of my day functioning pretty much on automatic? I'm afraid it has been more times than I can count. Perhaps you have had similar experiences in your life.

This is the very question God asked Adam and Eve in Genesis 3:9 when he was walking through the garden looking for them after they had eaten the forbidden fruit. "Where are you?" He asked. Of course Adam and Eve were hiding from God because they knew they had disobeyed Him and violated His trust. But the thing is, they couldn't hide from God and neither can we. We can choose to ignore Him and take Him for granted. We can even try to blame Him for our misfortunes or accuse Him of not listening to us and answering our prayers. At times like that we may even shout out to Him in our frustration; "Where are you, God?" Many of us have had moments like this but, when we ask God that question, be prepared for His answer because it will always be the same. "I am right here, walking at your side." He might even have a question for you that resembles the very question he asked our first parents in the garden. "Where are you, my child?"

As we go through our day, let us try to stay in the moment so we may be aware of God's presence in our day, and look to Him always to guide us on the right path as we journey through this life.

Have a blessed week, Deacon Bill Radio

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage to overcome all obstacles to their vocation in life. Give their parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood or religious life. Let Your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.
