LOBE DEN HERREN

Praise to the Lord

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, hea-ve-nly King, O God, al-migh-ty Fa-ther. Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us; you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer; you are sea-ted at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men. A-men.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD:

"You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans.

"If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I love you, Lord, my strength, my strength.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1989, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I love you, Lord, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my savior. R

My God, my rock where I take refuge; my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold. I cry out, "Praised be the Lord!" and see, I am saved from my foes. R

The Lord lives, and blest be my Rock! May the God of my salvation be exalted. The Lord give great victories to his king, and shows merciful love for his anointed. R

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters:

You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything.

For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him. R.

GOSPEL Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking,

"Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him,

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

As I talk with family, friends and others I meet day-to-day, the topic of local, national and world events seems to be on everyone's mind. There are varied levels of worry or concern over the events making the news headlines. I have witnessed how too much news and social media can have an adverse effect on one's life by causing excess worry, anxiety, and confusion. It can be difficult to maintain a healthy balance of staying abreast of current events so that one can be informed on how to intercede in prayer verses letting it begin to consume their lives. We must prayerfully discern the information we listen to in order to help us understand the truth and make informed decisions.

Sadly, I have family members who are feeding off a steady diet of conspiracy theories and modern day prophets that have led them away from the truth and practice of their Catholic faith. Satan's best tool is to bombard us with fear, worry and anxiety to get us to take our eyes off of Jesus and fix our gaze on the chaos and so-called impending doom surrounding us.

Psalm 18, the Responsorial Psalm for this weekend, is a great psalm to pray when we are feeling overwhelmed by the events happening around us and especially when we are experiencing trials and tribulations in our personal lives. I quote from Psalm 18, "My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the Lord, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies." These verses contain all that we need to remain steadfast in our hope as Christians. Our hope is in a God that will never abandon or forsake us and will supply all our needs. All he asks of us is to trust him with our entire lives so that he can be our refuge, our shield and our salvation.

Given what is taking place in our world and in our Church today, keeping our eyes focused on Jesus is the only sure way that we will have peace in our spirit. But we are called to do more than to cling to our own inner peace. We are called to give witness to the source of our peace. As the world around us increases in conflict, the need and desire for peace will also grow. As Christians, we understand that peace is more than the lack of conflict; peace is the person of Jesus, a peace much of the world does not know. So if the current events are causing you to feel less peace, I would invite you to spend less time listening to the world and instead spend more time listening to Jesus.

Deacon Timothy Dicks
