33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR, FOLLOWED BY THE OPENING HYMN)

Dicit Dominus: Ego cogito cogitationes pacis, et non afflictionis: invocabitis me, et ego exaudiam vos: et reducam captivitatem vestram de cunctis locis. (Verse) Benedixisti Domine terram tuam: avertisti captivitatem Iacob.

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place. (Verse) Lord, you have blessed your land; you have put an end to Jacob's captivity.

OPENING HYMN

TALLIS' ORDINAL
O Holy Spirit, Come to Us

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless - ed are those who fear the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Blessed are all who fear the Lord, and walk in his ways! By the labor of your hands you shall eat. You will be blessed and prosper. R

Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive around your table. R

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Sion. May you see Jerusalem prosper all the days of your life. R

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security, " then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

 But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief.
 For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness.
 Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord.
 Whoever remains in me bears much fruit . R

GOSPEL Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
 "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-- to each according to his ability. Then he went away.
 Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five.
 Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.
 "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them.
 The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.'
 His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'
 Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'
 Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.'
 His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return?
 Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
 Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

This Thursday we celebrate Thanksgiving, a national holiday that innately acknowledges that what we have has been received. In a society that focuses on “What can I achieve?” it is a sobering reminder that we ought to first recognize “What have I received?” A basic principle in philosophy is that nothing comes from nothing. Acknowledging that, we then see how everything that we have has a source from which it comes.

Abraham Lincoln, in his 1863 statement on this national holiday, reminded the young nation of the many gifts that had been given in the past year. He then acknowledged that, “To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, other blessings have been added.”

Rome is wasted on the Romans, and unfortunately the gifts of God are sometimes wasted on those who are surrounded by them. It is so easy to overlook what we have because we’re frequently reminded of what we don’t have. Taking the time to acknowledge what we’re grateful for is good—but we cannot forget to acknowledge that those things come from someone. We are indeed thankful for things, but we must also be thankful to someone. In this case, of course, we can always trace back gifts to God, from whom all blessings flow.

In addition to Thanksgiving, Thursday is the feast of Blessed Miguel Pro, one of my favorite saints. He was a Jesuit priest who was martyred in the Mexican persecution in the 20th Century. Despite the persecution, he was faithful to his priestly promises, to his ministry, and did it all with a sense of joy and humor. Being close to our own time and nation, he is a great model for us of how to endure suffering and persecution, seeing in them an opportunity for a closer union with Jesus Christ.

May you have a blessed Thanksgiving! God bless you!

Fr. Klein

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage to overcome all obstacles to their vocation in life. Give their parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God’s service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood or religious life. Let Your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.
