Our Lady of Guadalupe

Grant to our homes the grace of loving and respecting life in its beginnings, with the same love with which you conceived in your womb the life of the Son of God. Blessed Virgin Mary, protect our families, so that they may always be united, and bless the upbringing of our children.

Amen

Excerpt from His Holiness Pope John Paul II's prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico, January 1979.

Please join us in honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe at noon Mass on Tuesday, December 12th.

LITURGY GUIDE – December 10, 2023

Second Sunday of Advent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration.

You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 and 11:00 AM the Introit is sung by the Choir)

Populus Sion, ecce Dominus veniet ad salvandas gentes: et audiam faciet Dominus gloriam vocis suae, in Laetitia cordis vestri. (Verse) Qui regis Israel, intende: qui deducis velut ovem Ioseph.

O people of Sion, behold, the Lord will come to save the nations, and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart. (Verse) O Shepherd of Israel hear us, you who lead Joseph like a flock!

OPENING HYMN NUN KOMM, DER HEIDEN HEILAND 741 Savior of the Nations, Come

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated; indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD double for all her sins. A voice cries out:

In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country, a broad valley.

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. Go up on to a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God!

Here comes with power the Lord GOD, who rules by his strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him.

Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalms 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14 (Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, let us see your kind-ness, and grant us your sal-va-tion.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will hear what the Lord God speaks; he speaks of peace for his people and his faithful. His salvation is near for those who fear him, and his glory will dwell in our land. R

Merciful love and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have kissed. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth, and justice look down from heaven. R

Also the Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase. Justice will march before him, and guide his steps on the way. R

SECOND READING 2 Peter 3:8-14

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard “delay,” but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out.

Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames and the elements melted by fire.

But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand

Music: A. Gregory Murray, OSB, © 1958, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: All flesh shall see the salvation of God. R

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins.

John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey.

And this is what he proclaimed:

"One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Advent, as we know, is a time of preparation. The Church also gives us a great model of preparing for the Lord: Mary. On December 8, we celebrated the Immaculate Conception of Mary. God desires us to be prepared to receive Him, but God also plays by His own rules. He prepares Mary, preserving her from original sin, to be the chosen vessel to receive Jesus in the flesh. This Tuesday is the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Her appearance to St. Juan Diego shows that while she is an historical figure, she is not merely a statue on a shelf. Her mission continues to help us prepare to receive her Son. As much as Advent is about the preparation for the coming of Our Lord, it is also a time for greater devotion to His mother.

The Marian hymn for Advent is called the Alma Redemptoris Mater. My favorite line in the hymn is "Star of the Sea." We have many titles to Our Lady, but this one is a particular favorite of mine. I've never spent the night on the water, but I can only imagine the absolute darkness (when the moon isn't shining brightly) with no light pollution. As beautiful it would be, I can also imagine how afraid I may be. It is difficult, and at times risky, to move about in the dark—all the more on the sea.

This is the case in our spiritual life, too. There are times where we may feel we are in darkness—suffering, pain, the feeling of abandonment. While we know God doesn't abandon us, it can feel like that at times. Mary, the Star of the Sea, can continue to illuminate the path for us. Her witness and intercession are gifts often overlooked.

As we prepare for the birth of Jesus, may we look to His mother to be our model and our guide!

God bless you!
Fr. Klein

Loving mother of the Redeemer, gate of heaven, star of the sea; assist your people who have fallen, yet strive to rise again. To the wonderment of nature, you bore your Creator, yet remained a virgin after as before. You who received Gabriel's joyful greeting, have pity on us poor sinners.
