LITURGY GUIDE – December 24, 2023

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration.

You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

STUTT GART

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16

When King David was settled in his palace, and the LORD had given him rest from his enemies on every side, he said to Nathan the prophet,

"Here I am living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God dwells in a tent!"

Nathan answered the king, "Go, do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you."

But that night the LORD spoke to Nathan and said:

"Go, tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD:

Should you build me a house to dwell in?'

"It was I who took you from the pasture and from the care of the flock to be commander of my people Israel.

I have been with you wherever you went, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you.

And I will make you famous like the great ones of the earth.

I will fix a place for my people Israel; I will plant them so that they may dwell in their place without further disturbance.

Neither shall the wicked continue to afflict them as they did of old, since the time I first appointed judges over my people Israel.

I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also reveals to you that he will establish a house for you.

And when your time comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm.

I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me.

Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me; your throne shall stand firm forever."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

For ev - er I will sing the good-ness of the Lord.

Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will sing forever of your mercies, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your fidelity. I have declared your mercy is established forever; your fidelity stands firm as the heavens. R

“With my chosen one I have made a covenant; I have sworn to David my servant: I will establish your descendants forever, and set up your throne through all ages. R

He will call out to me, ‘You are my father, my God, the rock of my salvation.’ I will keep my faithful love for him always; with him my covenant shall last.” R

SECOND READING

ROMANS 16:25-27

Brothers and sisters:

To him who can strengthen you, according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret for long ages but now manifested through the prophetic writings and, according to the command of the eternal God, made known to all nations to bring about the obedience of faith, to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

Luke 1:26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary.

And coming to her, he said,

"Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you."

But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

Then the angel said to her,

"Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

"Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus.

He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

But Mary said to the angel,
"How can this be, since I have no relations with a man?"

And the angel said to her in reply,
"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.

Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.

And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God."

Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.

May it be done to me according to your word."

Then the angel departed from her.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,

consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SUPPORT THE SISTERS

The Perpetual Adoration Sisters invite you to visit their gift shop of religious articles and gifts at the Mater Ecclesiae Monastery.

The Monastery and Gift Shop are located in the parking lot behind St. Joseph Cathedral. The Gift shop has many great gift ideas for Christmas, Baptism, Communion, Confirmation and Birthdays.

Open Monday through Saturday 9:30 am to 5:30 pm.

Reminder - This year the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas are both days of obligation.

The Sunday obligation may be fulfilled either with the Saturday, Vigil Mass or one of the Sunday Morning Masses (7:30, 9:15 or 11:00am). Christmas is fulfilled with any of the Vigil Masses (after 4 pm) on Christmas Eve or any of the Christmas Day Masses.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Late on Christmas Eve 1914, a remarkable event occurred that demonstrated the true meaning of Christmas: peace and good will overshadowed war and death. Men of the British Army heard German troops in the trenches opposite them singing Christmas carols and patriotic songs, and saw lanterns and small fir trees along their trenches. Messages began to be shouted back and forth between the two enemies. The following day, British and German soldiers cautiously rose from their trenches and gazed across at each other before slowly proceeding to the center of No Man's Land – without rifles and grenades. They met and talked at first. Then, with the ice broke, they began to exchange gifts, take photographs and play impromptu games of football (soccer). Germans shared their cigarettes; the Brits shared their chocolate. Both sides shared their libations with one another. They laughed and sang together. Showed each other pictures of their families and girlfriends. Friendships were made. They also buried casualties and repaired trenches and dugouts. There was no killing that day. Hatred and ethnic rivalries ceased. After Boxing Day (December 26), meetings in no man's land dwindled out. After two weeks, the war resumed. Some officers were unhappy at the truce and worried that it would undermine the fighting spirit of their troops. After 1914, the High Commands on both sides tried to prevent any truces on a similar scale from happening again. They even threatened execution of any soldiers fraternizing with the enemy during a cease-fire of any kind. Despite this, there were some isolated incidents of soldiers holding brief truces later in the war, especially at Christmas.

To think that the birth of baby in a cave in an unknown part of the world would still have an effect on the human spirit 2,000 years later demonstrates the power of Christ's birth. Even today, as "wars and rumors of wars" (Matt. 24:6) pervade the news, none of this can diminish the joy and the hope that fills our hearts when we gaze into the manger. Even with our own personal problems and struggles of life, nothing can diminish Christmas joy...it emanates within us from the divine. So we continue to pray for peace, and hope for peace. We ask the Prince of peace to cleanse, purify, and transform our lives and our world, so we may recognize Jesus when He returns again.

On behalf of Fr. Pasquale, Fr. Klein and myself, and the Cathedral staff, and our many volunteers, happy last Sunday of Advent...and Merry Christmas! Thank you for all your prayers, Masses, well-wishes and gifts that you have sent our way. It's difficult to write a personal thank you to everyone, but please know of our gratitude for your kindness and generosity towards us. May you and your families have a very Blessed Christmas; and may the birth of Jesus actualize all your hopes, dreams and desires.

Fr. James Morgan
