The Epiphany of the Lord

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD. .

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13
(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, ev - ry na - tion on earth will a - dore you.

O God, give your judgment to the king, to a king's son your justice, that he may judge your people in justice, and your poor in right judgment. R

In his days shall justice flourish, and great peace till the moon is no more. He shall rule from sea to sea, from the River to the bounds of the earth. R

The kings of Tarshish and the islands shall pay him tribute. The kings of Sheba and Seba shall bring him gifts. Before him all kings shall fall prostrate, all nations shall serve him. R

For he shall save the needy when they cry, the poor, and those who are helpless. He will have pity on the weak and the needy, and save the lives of the needy. R

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 3:2-3A, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation.

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:

that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet:

And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel."

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage."

After their audience with the king they set out.

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTIONS

Once again, on behalf of the Cathedral priests and deacons, thank you for your cards, gifts, Masses and prayers for us during the Christmas Season. We are humbled and grateful. May the light of Christ, the Newborn King, reign in your hearts in 2024.

On another note: I want to thank my staff and all the volunteers who stepped up to help with the myriad of responsibilities and details during the Advent and Christmas seasons. None of this gets done by accident. Shout out to the ushers and greeters and the liturgical ministers who signed up to help with the Christmas Masses. It's a huge sacrifice on their part and I'm incredibly grateful. With that in mind...for some time we have been short-staffed in the Cathedral Offices. Volunteers help by answering the phones, but the follow-up always comes back to the staff. The workload in the office has increased dramatically in the last three years, and many times Mary Anne and Heidi are working late into the night to make sure that reports, requests, scheduling, financials, bulletins, etc. are completed to make deadlines. Therefore, I have made the decision to restrict public office hours from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Thursday; and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Fridays. This will allow them to have time to complete the tasks that I give them on a daily basis. Thank you for your understanding of the predicament we find ourselves in. The next time you see them, thank them for going above and beyond the call of duty.

At our quarterly Parish Council Meeting in November, we discussed the Set Ablaze Pastoral Plan. Just because Cathedral has not been linked to another parish doesn't mean that we are not affected by Set Ablaze. Officially, the Cathedral of St. Joseph Parish, along with the St. Josephine Bakhita Ecclesial Community and campus and the Mater Ecclesia Monastery (Adoration Sisters) make up Pastorate 21. Set Ablaze seeks to prioritize and align resources, gifts, talents, clergy and lay faithful in order to build a culture of "lifelong Catholic missionary discipleship" in our diocese. "Lifelong Catholic missionary discipleship" is the definition of the Catholic Church now existing in a Post-Christendom world. Each pastorate, including the Cathedral, has been instructed to develop a pastoral plan (think of it as a long-range plan) focusing on five pillars of the faith: 1. Worship (Mass, Sacraments, Devotions); 2. Discipleship and Evangelization (RCIA, Faith Formation, Missions, Retreats); 3. Service (Community Outreach, Service Projects, Homebound/Nursing Home Ministry); 4. Community (Bible Study Groups, Young Adults, Knights of Columbus, Quilters, etc.); and 5. Education (Catholic School, Home School, St. Joseph Academy Classical Education, Religious Ed, Sacramental Prep). At our August staff retreat at Broom Tree, we began to address these pillars by discussing the "anchors" that give the Cathedral Parish (Pastorate 21) its identity. We actually came up with a Mission Statement: a. To ensure the sacredness, beauty and tradition of Cathedral liturgies; b. To provide avenues that strengthen discipleship and deepen vocational awareness; c. To foster relationships within the Cathedral "faith community" that lead to greater evangelization and discipleship. Now it's time to bring the parish together to discuss and identify other notable markers or anchors that will help develop a pastoral plan for our pastorate. We have scheduled a "town hall" meeting for Tuesday, January 23 at 6:30 pm. Everyone is invited to weigh in on the five pillars of Set Ablaze and how they define Pastorate 21. See you there and have a Happy New Year!
