THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:

"Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you."

So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding.

Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it.

Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed, " when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Teach me your ways, O Lord, teach me your ways.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

O Lord, make me know your ways. Teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth, and teach me; for you are the God of my salvation. R

Remember your compassion, O Lord, and your merciful love, for they are from of old. In your merciful love remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord. R

Good and upright is the Lord; he shows the way to sinners. He guides the humble in right judgment; to the humble he teaches his way. R

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out.

From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully.

For the world in its present form is passing away.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel. R

GOSPEL

Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

A priest friend of mine once asked a young man in the military what he thought of all the ritual that takes place in the armed forces, things such as salutes, ranks, and formations. Thinking on the spot, a relatively simple answer was given: "I guess it shows that some things are more important than others. It separates the ordinary from the extraordinary."

This past week I was at the Arlington National Cemetery and stood, with many other spectators, before the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. While the honor and respect that we offer to our veterans is already an inspiration, I was particularly struck to see the engagement of the people present. At the changing of the guard, one guard comes to replace another guard, while an accompanying guard comes to address the crowd and escort the switching guards. Precise right angles, perfect walking form, pristine uniforms, and silence turned a busy crowd of tourists (often consumed by noise and mental stimulation) into a crowd that appeared like pilgrims. No eyes were looking down at phones. People were silent. They were drawn in, seeing these guards do something that is far from ordinary.

Ritual separates the ordinary from the extraordinary. That experience reminded me of why Jesus did not abolish ritual. He fulfills the Law and the Old Testament sacrifices, but He does not desire ritual worship to cease. In fact, that is the most consistent way the faith has been passed down: through the Liturgy. Why? God comes to us in the flesh—through the physicality of a body. We're not merely spirits, we are human beings. We are drawn to God, who is purely spiritual, through the physical. "Faith comes from what is heard."

Pope Francis says that "Wonder is an essential part of the liturgical act." The symbols used in the Mass should lead us into wonder—the architecture and music, the vestments and the incense. At its summit, the symbols cease and the reality is realized, as Jesus Himself becomes present in the appearance of bread and wine.

As we find ourselves nestled in this period of Ordinary Time between Christmas and Lent, may we remember the extraordinary gift of the Liturgy. May we come with wonder and be filled with His grace.

God bless you,

Fr. Tony Klein
