LITURGY GUIDE – February 11, 2024

The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration.

You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (9:15 AND 11:00 AM THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR)

Esto mihi in Deum protectorem, et in locum refugii, ut salvum me facias: quoniam firmamentum meum, et refugium meum es tu: et propter nomen tuum dux mihi eris, et enutries me. (Verse) In te, Domine, speravi, non confundar in aeternum: in iustitia tua libera me.

Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me. For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name. (Verse) In you O Lord, do I trust; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING LEVITICUS 13:1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 32:1-2, 5, 11 (Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeats)

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is remitted. Blessed the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. R To you I have acknowledged my sin; my guilt I did not hide. I said, "I will confess my transgression to the Lord." And you have forgiven the guilt of my sin. R Rejoice in the Lord; exult, you just! Ring out your joy, all you upright of heart! R

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way,

OPENING HYMN ST. ANNE O God, Our Help in Ages Past 661

PENITENTIAL ACT I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved.

Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people. R

GOSPEL

Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN (4PM & 7:30AM)
627

HYFRDOL

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (9:15AM)

Benedictus es Domine, doce me	Blessed are you, O Lord, teach
istificationes tuas: benedictus es	me your commandments. O
Domine, doce me istificationes tuas:	Lord, you are blessed, teach me
in labiis meis pronuntiabi omnia	your commandments. With my
indicia oris tui.	lips have I declared all the judgments spoken by your mouth.

OFFERTORY MOTET (11:00AM)

Samuel S. Wesley
(1810 - 1876)

Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee.

The darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day. The darkness and the light to thee, are both alike.

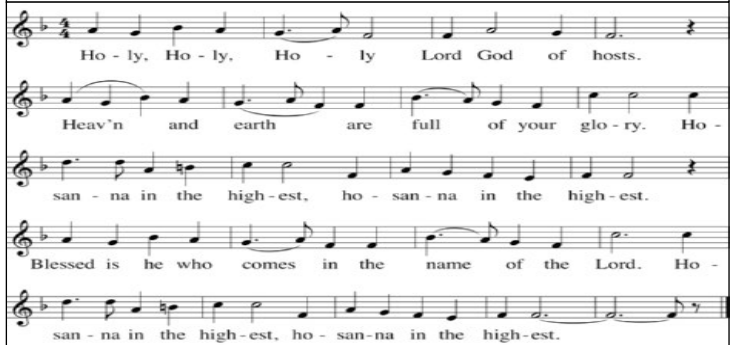

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forevermore.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

SANCTUS

CLERGY REFLECTION

As we begin Lent this week, I'm sure the water-cooler talk at the office is about what people are giving up and the fish sandwiches that will once again be advertised on billboards and TVs alike. While many Catholics know "what" we're called to do during Lent, it is always important to review the "why." Otherwise we can easily end up checking boxes and yet not having any growth in charity, being like a clanging gong (see 1 Cor. 13:1).

Prayer. Fasting. Almsgiving. While they're all important, this ordering, in my opinion, is crucial. The whole point of Lenten practices is for us to grow in holiness. It can be easy enough to say "no" to a hamburger and put some extra money in a collection, but if those practices don't help us to love God and neighbor more, then we become a clanging gong. Prayer ought to be the foundation of our time of Lent. Depending on one's vocation and state in life, time and types of prayer look different, but no one can grow in holiness without a life of prayer.

From the Scriptures we know that Jesus fasted. Through our prayer, we learn how to make our fasts sanctifying. While fasting from a particular food or drink may be what we need to pursue, perhaps we need to fast from something else. To help in this area, consider what areas of sin you struggle with. If you struggle with complaining, fast from complaining. If you struggle with gossip, fast from gossip. You get the idea.

Lastly, when we give to others, we should feel it. Almsgiving ought to put us in contact with our poverty. The Missionaries of Charity (and similar religious orders) are able to serve the poor so easily because they know their own poverty before God, and they also see that Jesus humbled himself to the lowest place. Do not be afraid to let your almsgiving make you uncomfortable.

One final note: choose penances that will challenge you but are possible. If we set the bar too high, we can easily become discouraged. Don't be led to despair if you fall. Rather, imitate Jesus, rise, continue on, and see it as a chance for humility.

God bless you!
