LITURGY GUIDE - February 25, 2024

The Second Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 AM THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR DURING THE ENTRANCE PROCESSION)

Reminiscere miserationum tuarum, Domine, et misericordiae tuae, quae a saeculo sunt: ne unquam dominantur nobis inimici nostri: libera nos Deus Israel ex omnibus angustiis nostris. (Verse) Ad te, Domine, levavi animam meam: Deus meus in te confide, non erubescam.

Remember your compassion, O Lord, and your merciful love, for they are from of old. Let not our enemies exult over us. Redeem us, O God of Israel, from all our distress. (Verse) Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you, let me not be put to shame.

OPENING HYMN (4:00 PM & 7:30 AM) ERHALT UNS HERR 781 The Glory of these Forty Days

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test.

He called to him, "Abraham!"

"Here I am!" he replied.

Then God said:

"Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it.

Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son.

But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!"

"Here I am!" he answered.

"Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger.

"Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son."

As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said:

"I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19 (Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I trusted, even when I said, "I am sorely afflicted." How precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful. R

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I, the son of your handmaid; you have loosened my bonds. A thanksgiving sacrifice I make; I will call on the name of the Lord. R

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill before all his people, in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us, who will condemn?

Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:

This is my beloved Son, listen to him. R

GOSPEL

Mark 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus.

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified.

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God, begotten, not made,
 consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
 Amen.

COMMUNION MEDITATION (11:00 AM) Maurice Duruflé Tantum Ergo (1902-1986)

Tantum ergo sacramentum veneremur cernui, et antiquum documentum novo cedat ritui; praestet fides supplementum sensuum defectui.

Down in adoration falling,
This great Sacrament we hail,
O'er ancient forms of worship
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith will tell us Christ is present,
When our human senses fail.
To the Everlasting Father,
And the Son who made us free
And the Spirit, God proceeding
From them Each eternally,
Be salvation, honour, blessing,
Might and endless majesty. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Facing Adversity

As a deacon assigned to Prison Ministry there are times when I receive correspondence through the Cathedral office from offenders that I have previously ministered to. Recently, however, I received a letter in my Cathedral mailbox that was from an offender whom I didn't know and even more puzzling the return address was from a county jail in another state. I opened the six page letter and it was addressed to: "Dear whomever takes time to read this." It was from a man in his early thirties who heard about St. Joseph Cathedral through a friend and felt he should reach out. In the letter he explains a detailed history of his life leading up to his current incarceration. He describes a childhood that consisted of tremendous abandonment and abuse. In his teen years he turned to drugs to medicate the pain but then addiction only compounded the suffering. Inevitably it led to his incarceration.

I share this story because it caused me to reflect on how I handle adversity in my life. When things don't go my way or tragedy strikes, how do I respond? What we are made of manifests when we encounter adversity. In other words, the strengths and weaknesses of our character are revealed.

Abraham in this Sunday's first reading faced a tremendous test of character when he was asked by God to sacrifice his son. After hearing the command that God gives him he does not hesitate to fulfill God's will. As a father, I can't begin to imagine what Abraham was going through. It was his total and complete trust in God that allowed him to offer his son without hesitation. The adversity that he went through was to prove himself worthy of God's great promise for him to be the father of many nations. The same is true for us. The adversity that we experience in this life is meant to prepare us for a life of eternal glory in heaven. When all goes well, we can become complacent in our faith, but that can change when we're facing hard times. Faith, hope, humility and patience can be measured more genuinely when adversity enters our life. Even though it's something that we try to resist with all our might, adversity also can be the very thing that causes greater dependency on God. This was the case with the young man I described above. Through his life of hardship he has now surrendered his life to God, and although he's still suffering from life experiences and the consequences of his actions, he is seeking to imitate Christ in his life.

So as we continue this time of Lenten penitence when we're asked to take up our cross and follow Jesus, let us take comfort in the words of St. Paul in the second reading, "If God is for us, who can be against us."
