THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trum - pets for the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, is awesome, the great king over all the earth. R

God goes up with shouts of joy. The Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God; sing praise! Sing praise to our king; sing praise! R

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God reigns over the nations. God sits upon his holy throne. R

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:1-13

Brothers and sisters,
I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.

Therefore, it says:

*He ascended on high and took prisoners captive;
he gave gifts to men.*

What does "he ascended" mean except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth? The one who descended is also the one who ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

And he gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature to manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Go and teach all nations, says the Lord;

I am with you always, until the end of the world. R

GOSPEL

Mark 16:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.

Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned.

These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages.

They will pick up serpents with their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them.

They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.

But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Catholic marriages represent distinctive spirituality that is communitarian, sacramental, and missionary. The covenant established on the wedding day is not merely between two individuals. Rather, it is a spiritual union between man, woman, and God.

Seasons can have an impact on any wedding. Usually if you want to have a holiday wedding, you might have a winter wedding. If you want to have an outdoors wedding, spring, summer and possibly fall are the perfect months. When you decide which type of wedding you want to have, you are also choosing the season. This is important for planning the entire wedding; also the spirituality itself needs a specific season.

Majority of St. Josephine Bakhita weddings are from the Kunama community, and it is a culture shock for me. The Kunama community is used to celebrating their weddings during the summer season, and it is true for everyone around the world. In Eritrea the most known wedding season is around January. Although it might be a little sunny and might not suit the traditional weddings, this time is chosen because of its cultural preferences. This fact is supported by both cultural and economic reasons.

In Eritrea the rainy season is in between May and August so farmer's harvest is mostly from October to late December. For this reason January is the most festive and rich time of the year. 99% of Kunama is a farmer, so it is unusual to plan their weddings in summer season but nowadays weddings are hosted almost any time of the year. Leaving your country teaches you to adapt every situation and culture.

In the Catholic Church, a sacrament is a concrete expression of Christ in the world. Likewise, the Church believes that in marriage, a couple's life and their love should be witnessed by their family and friends. In order to testify to the holy union, family and friends are invited to experience Christ's divine presence and generous contribution to the world. Let us pray for our parishioners who are planning to get married in this year that they may understand and keep their holy union in the grace of God.
