THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, send out your Spir - it, and re - new the face of the earth.

TEXT: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
MUSIC: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, how great you are. How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures. R

You take away their breath, the die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, and they are created, and you renew the face of the earth. R

May the glory of the Lord last forever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I will rejoice in the Lord. R

SECOND READING

Galatians 5:16-25

Brothers and sisters, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh.

For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want.

But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, lust, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like.

I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

Against such there is no law.

Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh with its passions and desires.

If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.

PENTECOST SEQUENCE

Come, Thou Holy Spirit, come! And from thy celestial home shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Thou Father of the poor! Come, Thou Source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine!

Thou, of comforters the best; Thou, the soul's most welcome Guest; sweet refreshment here below.

In our labor, rest most sweet; grateful coolness in the heat; solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine, shine within these hearts of thine, and our inmost being fill!

Where thou art not, man hath naught, nothing good in deed or thought, nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew; on our dryness pour thy dew; wash the stains of guilt away.

Bend the stubborn heart and will; melt the frozen, warm the chill; guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore and confess thee, evermore in thy sevenfold gift descend.

Give them virtue's sure reward, give them thy salvation Lord; give them joys that never end. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. R

GOSPEL John 15:26-27;16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

"When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.

And you also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (9:15 AM)

*Confirma hoc Deus, quod operatus

reges munera, alleluia.*

Confirm, O God, that which you have accomplished in our midst; from your holy temple
which is in Jerusalem, kings
shall offer presents to you.

OFFERTORY MOTET (11:00 AM)William Harris
(1883-1973)

Come Down, O Love Divine

Come down, O Love divine;
 Seek thou this soul of mine,
 And visit it with thine own ardor glowing.
 O Comforter, draw near,
 Within my heart appear,
 And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn,
 Till earthly passions turn
 To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
 And let thy glorious light
 Shine ever on my sight,
 And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
 My outward vesture be,
 And lowliness become my inner clothing;
 True lowliness of heart,
 Which takes the humbler part,
 And on all pride of spirit looks with loathing.

And so the yearning strong,
 With which the soul will long,
 Shall far outpass the pow'r of human telling.
 For none can guess its grace,
 Till he become the place
 Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

CLERGY REFLECTION

When we look at historical events, one of the temptations can be for us to think that these events are over and done with. Pentecost is indeed a historical event. We know the Apostles, after Jesus' Ascension, remain together with Mary and receive the Holy Spirit upon them at Pentecost. While this is historically true, it is not merely an isolated event in the Church's life. The Holy Spirit continues to sanctify. The Holy Spirit is continually given to ignite hearts, purify souls, and guide the Church.

When we profess in the Creed, "I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church," it could invite some to pause at the word "holy." After all, an honest study of history can show very unholy things done through members of this Church. In times of significant change, there often results confusion. The Church's members, in these eras, are not immune to being influenced by the spirit of the age. Precisely in these times of apparent scandal from members of the Church, we also see the Holy Spirit stir up in the hearts of her members beautiful and lasting gifts for the Church and the whole world. For example, in a time of decadent lifestyles and some clergy being more concerned with political gain rather than care for souls, the Spirit stirred up in the hearts of men like St. Francis and St. Dominic to transform the culture through poverty and truth. During the Protestant Reformation, when the Church did have need for purification but not to be overthrown, the Holy Spirit inspired the minds and hearts of artists to produce many of the magnificent churches, paintings, sculptures, and compositions that are still marvels today.

There is always reason to hope. This does not mean we are to turn a blind eye to places in the Church - more importantly in our own lives - that need reform and renewal. It does, however, mean that we have faith in Jesus' words - "The Father will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth." May we never despair but find true hope in the Holy Spirit, which Jesus has promised to send to us if we are faithful to Him and His commands.

God bless you,

Fr. Klein
