PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

DEUTEROTOMY 4:32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people:

"Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other:

Did anything so great ever happen before?

Was it ever heard of?

Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live?

Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other.

You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoy on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless - ed the peo - ple the Lord has cho - sen to be his own.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The word of the Lord is faithful, and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right, and his merciful love fills the earth. R

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all their host. He spoke and it came to be. He commanded; it stood in place. R

Yes, the Lord's eyes are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. He is our help and our shield. May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O Lord. R

SECOND READING

Romans 8:14-17

Brothers and sisters:

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*Please Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come. R

GOSPEL

Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.

PROFESSION OF FAITH*Please Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Question: What are the fifteen most powerful words in the English language? Answer: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Every Christian knows these words as well as the corresponding motions that typically accompany the words. The words and motion are generally referred to as "The Sign of the Cross" and indeed they are. However, they are also a simple, yet powerful, reminder of the presence of the Blessed Trinity throughout our day.

Whenever a group of Christians gather, no matter what they are doing, when someone begins speaking these words, all snap to attention and join in with what is to be the beginning of a prayer to God. Even most non-Christians recognize "the Sign of the Cross" when they see a person blessing themselves in public.

You cannot watch a baseball game on TV without seeing numerous players make "the Sign of the Cross" when they are about to get in the batter's box or take the mound to pitch, or to give thanks after a successful play.

Although "the Sign of the Cross" is commonly recognized throughout our society, it is often employed without really thinking about what we are doing and what it represents. The motion to this powerful prayer is made in the shape of a cross to remind us of what Christ did for us and of the Trinitarian nature of our God. It is also the shape of a shield to protect us from evil any time we seek God's help and protection in our life.

Additionally, when we make "the Sign of the Cross" in public, it can be a very subtle but powerful means of evangelization. Giving prayerful thanks for a meal in a restaurant is just one example of the opportunities available to us to witness our faith.

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, let us give thanks to the God who created us, saved us and guides and protects us from evil any time we remain open to his help. And let us not shy away from evangelizing or defending our faith when given the opportunity to do so.

Deacon Bill Radio

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father,

Who by His almighty power and love created me,
making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,

Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,

Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me

by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever.

Amen.
