THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 3:9-15

After the man, Adam, had eaten of the tree, the LORD God called to the man and asked him,
"Where are you?"

He answered, "I heard you in the garden; but I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself."

Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten, then, from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!"

The man replied, "The woman whom you put here with me— she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it."

The LORD God then asked the woman,

"Why did you do such a thing?"

The woman answered, "The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it."

Then the LORD God said to the serpent:

"Because you have done this, you shall be banned from all the animals and from all the wild creatures; on your belly shall you crawl, and dirt shall you eat all the days of your life.

I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

With the Lord there is mer - cy,
and full - ness of re - demp - tion.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings. R

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, that you may be revered. R

I long for you, O Lord, my soul longs for his word. My soul hopes in the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let Israel hope for the Lord. R

For with the Lord there is mercy, in him is plentiful redemption. It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities. R

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Brothers and sisters:

Since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we too believe and therefore we speak, knowing that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in his presence.

Everything indeed is for you, so that the grace bestowed in abundance on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God. Therefore, we are not discouraged; rather, although our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day.

For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal.

For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Now the ruler of the world will be driven out, says the Lord; and when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself. R

GOSPEL

Mark 3:20-35

Jesus came home with his disciples.

Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat.

When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons."

Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan?"

If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him.

But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house.

Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." His mother and his brothers arrived.

Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you."

But he said to them in reply,

"Who are my mother and my brothers?"

And looking around at those seated in the circle he said,

"Here are my mother and my brothers.

For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Robert Gabriel Mugabe was a Zimbabwean late and former president. He was a great politician and famous in making hilarious and political quotes. I really enjoyed reading his funny quotes. One of the quotes about Adam and Eve says; "If Adam & Eve were Chinese we would have been in paradise because they would have ignored the apple & eaten the snake."

Genesis tell us that God made us and indeed all of creation "good", not perfect, but good. Adam and Eve had done something wrong, what they felt wasn't guilt. Guilt didn't make them hide their nakedness...it was shame. And here's why that's a significant distinction, because guilt is about what we have done – but shame is about who we are.

We should feel guilty for the wrong we do. That is healthy and leads us to the foot of the cross where we receive grace upon grace for the forgiveness of sins. Shame on the other hand keeps us afraid of God.

We should feel shame when we do things against divine law which is supernatural law and also natural law. Especially I feel bad with talk about genders in the world nowadays. Every evil feeling cannot be blamed on gender.

Robert Mugabe says: "even Satan wasn't gay, he approached naked Eve instead of naked Adam. My friends, God created Adam and Eve not Adam and Steve." There is a reason why he did that.

For some reason God allows us to live in a world where alternatives to God's voice exist (for instance, the serpent) and those alternatives to God's voice are where shame originates. There is another term for alternatives to God's voice and it is that which we call the demonic. Shame, when it keeps us hiding and blaming and fearful is demonic. And Jesus, as we hear in our Gospel text for today has no patience for this. Jesus just absolutely insists on destroying the false voices that shame.

Shame kept Adam and Eve from the truth as it has continued to keep all of us from the truth. So Eve blames the serpent, and Adam blames Eve and the shaming continues and God's forgiveness is simply not allowed to take hold. Let us listen to what God whispers in our hearts today and feel shame for our deeds that are against God's laws.
