LITURGY GUIDE - June 30, 2024

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

WISDOM 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death,
nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living.
For he fashioned all things that they might have being;
and the creatures of the world are wholesome,
and there is not a destructive drug among them
nor any domain of the netherworld on earth,
for justice is undying.
For God formed man to be imperishable;
the image of his own nature he made him.
But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world,
and they who belong to his company experience it.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat

I will praise you, Lord, for you have res - cued me.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectioary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will extol you, Lord, for you have raised me up, and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have lifted up my soul from the grave, restored me to life from those who sink into the pit. R

Sing psalms to the Lord, you faithful ones; give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts a moment; his favor all through life. At night come tears, but dawn brings joy. R

Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; be my helper, O Lord. You have changed my mourning into dancing. O Lord my God, I will thank you forever. R

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters:

As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written:

Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONPlease Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel. R

GOSPEL

Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea.

One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying,

"My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live."

He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse.

She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak.

She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured."

Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?"

But his disciples said to Jesus,

"You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'"

And he looked around to see who had done it.

The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth.

He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said,

"Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?"

Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official,

"Do not be afraid; just have faith."

He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.

When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.

So he went in and said to them,

"Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

And they ridiculed him.

Then he put them all out.

He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was.

He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around.

At that they were utterly astounded.

He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

PROFESSION OF FAITHPlease Stand*

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God, begotten, not made,

consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit

was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Farewell to our Cathedral Family

If you have ever talked matters of faith with me or listened to my homilies, you have probably heard me speak of uniting our will with the will of God. Uniformity to God's will for me is an important part of my faith. As Christians we are all called to be imitators of Christ. Jesus says in John 6:38: "For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me." Being united with the will of our heavenly Father fulfills the purpose for which he created us as it states in the Book of Wisdom in today's first reading, "For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him." I say all of this with the understanding that following God's will for our lives is easier said than done. Such is the case for Julie and I.

Earlier this year I was approached by the Clergy Council to consider transferring to Pastorate 19, Our Lady of Victory, which consists of St. Michael and St. George parishes. The reason being that the pastorate currently oversees the prison ministry. Since I was assigned to prison ministry when I was ordained, the Council thought it would be beneficial if I was assigned to the pastorate that has oversight of the ministry. Being assigned to Our Lady of Victory pastorate will allow for easier coordination of the various aspects of jail and prison ministry with the priests of the pastorate. I begin my new assignment July 2nd.

When I was asked to consider reassignment, I responded that I was open to whatever God's will was for me as a deacon, understanding that I am under the authority of the Bishop. Having later received word from Bishop DeGroot that I would be reassigned; I saw this as an opportunity to implement in a new way - uniformity to God's will. I truly believe that if we have surrendered every aspect of our lives to God's divine sovereignty, all that happens is either caused or allowed by God which should lead us to praise him in all things.

As I said earlier - it's easier said than done. It's with heavy hearts that Julie and I say goodbye to our Cathedral family. We have been grieving the thought of leaving all of you as we move closer to our last days at the Cathedral. Please keep Julie and I in your prayers as we seek to be obedient to God's will in our lives. Trust that we will never be far from our Cathedral family as we remember you in our prayers. We both want to say thank you for the tremendous blessing you all have been in our lives. The words you have heard me say with all sincerity many times in the Concluding Rite of the Mass I pray for us now - that we may all be at peace and glorify God with our lives.

Deacon Timothy Dickes
