THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

JEREMIAH 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD.

Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people:

You have scattered my sheep and driven them away.

You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds.

I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply.

I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land.

In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security.

This is the name they give him:

"The LORD our justice."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord is my shep-herd; there is noth - ing I shall want.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me; he revives my soul. R

He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name. Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death, no evil would I fear, for you are with me. Your crook and your staff will give me comfort. R

You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for length of days unending. R

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters:

In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it.

He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me. R

GOSPEL

Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught.

He said to them,

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat.

So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.

People saw them leaving and many came to know about it.

They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. men.

INTRODUCTION TO NICOLE

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” What an invitation! It almost sounds too good to be true. Jesus isn’t one to mince words—He means what He says.

I know many of you are busy with family matters—doing your diligence to raise up the domestic Church. Many of you are diligent in your work. To “come away to a deserted place and rest a while” may sound impossible or like a waste of time when we could get so much done otherwise. However, Jesus doesn’t mince words. If we’re ever in a place to say, “Your words, Jesus, don’t apply to me,” we may need to step away and re-examine where we are at. We all need to step away and rest.

As priests, we have the gift that not only are we allowed, we are required, to have an annual retreat. The Church desires that her shepherds have the chance to step away, to re-examine our life and be refreshed in His grace. That’s harder for spouses and parents. It may not be impossible, though! I have heard of spouses who each promise each other one weekend a year for them to take a retreat while they take care of family matters for the weekend. With Broom Tree Retreat Center and the Abbey of the Hills in our diocese, we have two opportunities close to home that offer various retreats throughout the year.

Even if that isn’t possible for one reason or another, this call remains, and I think it is important to listen to them. Perhaps it is having one day a month you don’t use your phone and find some sort of extra time to go to the Lord in prayer. Maybe it is finding one weekend throughout the year where you are able to get away for a day of recollection or a retreat. And while marriage requires love and attention to a spouse and children, which ought not to be rejected, what a great example to kids when mom or dad actually takes a day to focus on their relationship with God in a very intentional way.

God desires our good. He desires our fulfillment. It is with this understanding we must hear Jesus’ words. His commands are not burdensome but meant to give us life. May we all be able to heed His words, “to come away and rest.”

God bless you!
