THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

2 KINGS 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear.

Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat."

But his servant objected,

"How can I set this before a hundred people?"

Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat."

"For thus says the LORD,

"They shall eat and there shall be some left over."

And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he an - swers all our needs.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

All your works shall thank you, O Lord, and all your faithful ones bless you. They shall speak of the glory of your reign, and declare your mighty deeds. R

The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. R

The Lord is just in all his ways, and holy in all his deeds. The Lord is close to all who call him, who call on him in truth. R

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters:

I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace:

one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst.

God has visited his people. R

GOSPEL

John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee.

A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick.

Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples.

The Jewish feast of Passover was near.

When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip,

"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?"

He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do.

Philip answered him,

"Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little."

One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"

Jesus said, "Have the people recline."

Now there was a great deal of grass in that place.

So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted.

When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat.

When the people saw the sign he had done, they said,

"This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

INTRODUCTION TO NICOLE

"Why don't we do the 'sign of the peace' in Mass at the Cathedral?" This is a question I field now and then, especially from those outside the Cathedral environ, who may attend Mass in another parish in Sioux Falls or outside of Sioux Falls. It's a legitimate question with a multi-faceted answer. First, the sign of peace is always optional. It's a pastoral call then. When I came to the Cathedral in 2015, it was not being initiated by the priest at the altar, so I continued that precedent. The Congregation of Divine Worship in the Vatican, beginning in 2005, studied the necessity of the sign of peace and its location in the Mass. In 2014, the Congregation decided to leave the gesture where it is in the Mass, but emphasized its protocol and its optional character, pointing to the abuses of the gesture which had occurred in the pews since its inception after Vatican Council II. With the proliferation of COVID in 2020, the sign of peace became passe' and unthinkable. Forget about shaking someone's hand, we had to stand 5 feet apart from each other! Even before COVID, many people (especially the elderly) would refrain from offering or receiving the sign of peace during the flu season. It then became awkward to even initiate the gesture from the altar. But it's more than just a health concern. The position of the sign of peace in the Mass is problematic. We are approaching the most sacred moment in the Mass, where Jesus will be elevated as the "True Peace" the "True Presence" in the Holy Eucharist. Calling "time out" at that particular moment in the Mass for the sake of a human gesture substitutes an incredibly sacred, solemn moment for a profane and celebratory one. Logically, it makes no sense when you look at what is happening in the Mass at that moment. However, though the sign of peace is not initiated by the priest at the altar, it doesn't mean that it can't be given, especially between family members and friends who are either in the same pew or directly behind or in front of one another. It's done privately. I see this frequently at Mass and I commend it. It's simple, respectful and quickly brings one's focus back to the altar where the singing of the "Lamb of God" witnesses to the Christian belief that true peace is the gift of Christ's death and resurrection.
