THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

PROVERBS 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven columns; she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine, yes, she has spread her table.

She has sent out her maidens; she calls from the heights out over the city:

"Let whoever is simple turn in here;
To the one who lacks understanding, she says,
Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!
Forsake foolishness that you may live;
advance in the way of understanding."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Taste and see the good - ness of the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will bless the Lord at all times; praise of him is always in my mouth. In the Lord my soul shall make its boast; the humble shall hear and be glad. R

Glorify the Lord with me; together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord, and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R

Look toward him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This lowly one called; the Lord heard, and rescued him from all his distress. R

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 5:15-20

Brothers and sisters:

Watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil.

Therefore, do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord.

And do not get drunk on wine, in which lies debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord. R

Jesus said to the crowds:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Jesus said to them,

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.

For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me.

This is the bread that came down from heaven.

Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Queen of Heaven, Rejoice! Alleluia!

This is the opening line of the hymn Regina Caeli, which is the Marian hymn for the Season of Easter. While we're far from the Easter Season, this Thursday is the Feast of the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Last Thursday we celebrated her Assumption into heaven, and a week later the Church presents us with her title as Queen of Heaven and Earth. We have many titles for Mary: Mother of God, Mother of the Church, and her many apparitions. But why "Queen?"

The modern understanding of a queen is being the wife of the king, with their children being princes and princesses, successors to the throne. In the Ancient Near East, however, the understanding is different. It is not the wife of the king who is the queen. Rather, it is the mother of the king who receives the title. People would go to the queen in order to get requests made to the king. After all, which son can deny the request of his mother?

We see this in 1 Kings. In chapter 1, Bathsheba enters the room and bows to her husband, David, the King. In the next chapter, after David has died, Solomon becomes king. As Bathsheba enters the room, she doesn't bow but is bowed to. Solomon stands and honors her, the Mother-Queen. She enters the room to bring a petition of one of the citizens. He responds, "I will not refuse you."

The request of any mother is powerful. It is true all the more with Mary. She receives our requests and intercessions as our queen—not to grant them herself but to bring them to her Son, the king. As we know we have many needs, as individuals, as families, as a parish, and in our world, may we go to God how He has come to us—through Mary.

God bless you and Mary keep you!

Fr. Klein

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.

To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.

To you do we send up our sighs, mourning
and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us,

and after this exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God that we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.
