THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

DEUTERONOMY 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses said to the people:

"Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it.

Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say,

'This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.'

For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him?

Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole law which I am setting before you today?"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 15:2-3, 3-4, 4-5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

He who does jus - tice will live in the pres - ence of the Lord.

Text: The Revised Grail Psalms, © 2010, Conception Abbey and The Grail, admin. by GIA Publications, Inc.; refrain tr. © 1969, ICEL

Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc.

Whoever walks without fault; who does what is just, and speaks the truth from his heart; whoever does not slander with his tongue. R

Who does no wrong to a neighbor, who casts no slur on a friend, who looks with scorn on the wicked, but honors those who fear the Lord. R

Who lends no money at interest, and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a one shall never be shaken. R

SECOND READING

JAMES 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Dearest brothers and sisters:

All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this:

to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Father willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. R

GOSPEL

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands.

—For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds.

So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?"

He responded,

"Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written:

This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts.

You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition."

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand.

Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.

"From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

A few weeks ago my wife and I were blessed to travel to England for what I thought would be a vacation. Somewhere along the way, God intervened.

The top priority for me was to get as close to St. Thomas More as I could. He is one of the saints I most admire for his faith and for being true to his conscience despite the pressures and threat of execution for resisting Henry VIII's desire to obtain a divorce which was refused by the Vatican.

Since his last year was spent imprisoned in the Tower of London, we booked a tour of that historic place. The cell he was held in was pointed out to us but what we were surprised to visit was the site of his execution and the crypt where his body is buried inside the Tower.

We also visited Stonehenge which has been a dream of mine since boyhood. It was fascinating to learn more about the efforts of those who designed and constructed the monument as a place to worship their god. Granted it was not the God we know as Christians, or even the God of Moses and Abraham. But it was an impressive monument to the higher power these pagans prayed to. It caused me to reflect on the massive effort these people made with few tools, to construct this lasting monument over an 800 year period of time. I prayed that I might be as committed to God as Thomas More and the builders of Stonehenge were in their time.

As the trip progressed, I found myself feeling God's presence in most everything we did including standing in awe at the beauty of God's creation when gazing across the beautiful English countryside and the willingness of total strangers to help us around London when we had trouble finding our way.

During our trip, and in the days which followed, I was struck by the number of people asking me how our pilgrimage was. I realized that, in fact, my trip had turned into a pilgrimage because we were receptive to God's presence in each day. When I mentioned this to Father Klein, he made the observation that almost any trip can be a pilgrimage if our heart is open to it. I couldn't agree more.

In fact, our whole life is a pilgrimage, and God has many blessings and surprises for us along the way if we just remain open to His presence in our life. Let us continue to pray for each other as we continue on our life-long pilgrimage to our final destination in heaven to spend eternity with God, our tour guide, who is the giver of all good gifts.
