LITURGY GUIDE - September 22, 2024

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR, FOLLOWED BY THE OPENING HYMN)

Salus populi ego sum, dicit Dominus: de quacumque tribulation clamaverint ad me, exaudiam eos: et ero illorum Dominus in perpetuum. (Verse) Attendite popule meus legem meam: inclinate aurem vestram in verba oris mei.

I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever. (Verse) Attend, O my people, to my law; incline your ear to the words of my mouth.

OPENING HYMN

ST. ANNE

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

The wicked say:

Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training.

Let us see whether his words be true; let us find out what will happen to him.

For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes.

With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience.

Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his own words, God will take care of him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 54:3-4, 5-6, 8

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord up - holds my life.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass © 1969,1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970 Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

O God, save me by your name; by your power, defend my cause. O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth. R

For the proud have risen against me, and the ruthless seek my life. They have no regard for God. R

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, for it is good. R

SECOND READING

James 3:16-4:3

Beloved:

Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice.

But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace.

Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain; you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. R

GOSPEL

Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise.” But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

It is such a common question to ask kids nowadays: "What do you want to be when you grow up?" It's not a bad question, nor is it new. But I do wonder if it is asked more than it used to be. After all, we live in a world that has occupational potentials unknown in former ages. People can live and work in completely different places, working jobs that didn't exist 50 years ago, when the foundational jobs had been those seen around the stained glass windows of St. Joseph and the Blessed Mother in our cathedral. Certainly new work has arisen as the world has changed so rapidly, which is not an evil thing!

All of that being said, I think there is a question largely unasked today—certainly in the world, but unfortunately also in many of our own homes and parishes. That question is: "God, what are you calling me to in life? How are you calling me to love and serve you?" It's a related question to the first, but it goes deeper. The first question assumes we know what we truly desire. The second acknowledges that God may have something in store for us deeper than we even know.

I returned this week from Rockford, IL, where my sister took her final vows as a cloistered nun. I was moved in the Mass beyond what I can convey here in words, but I will do my best! Very few, if any, little girls would ever respond to the first question above by saying, "When I grow up, I want to wear a crown of thorns." Yet, over the course of my sister's own vocational discernment, she wanted nothing less than to be united with Jesus, even in suffering. And so, while most brides are adorned with a veil on their wedding day, she took up a crown of thorns to wear for the day, showing her union with Him even in suffering. (Don't worry, the crown doesn't actually pierce the skin or hurt—she assured my very curious nephews of that). Surrounded with her sisters, they taught the rest of us what it means to be full of joy and full of life, even adorned with a symbol of the Passion.

Just because little girls don't respond to that question with this type of an answer doesn't mean they don't desire it. But we are often too shy or afraid to ask the question. We should not be afraid to ask the question, "What do you think God is asking of you?" to young people. We never want to force anyone into any vocation. Freedom is an essential part of discipleship, nonetheless vocational discernment. But many religious or seminarians acknowledge that they first started taking the call seriously when someone asked if they had ever considered it.

While we continue to pray for an increase in holy vocations in our diocese, may we also have the courage and prudence to ask others, and ourselves, "God, what are you calling me to in life?"

God bless you,
Fr. Klein
