LITURGY GUIDE - September 29, 2024

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AM & 11:00 THE INTROIT IS SUNG BY THE CHOIR, FOLLOWED BY THE OPENING HYMN)

Omnia quae fecisti nobis, Domine, in vero iudicio fecisti, quia peccavimus tibi, et mandatis tuis non obedivimus: sed da gloriam nomini tuo, et fac nobisum secundum multitudinem misericordiae tuae. (Verse) Beati immaculati in via: qui ambulant in lege Domini.

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy. (Verse) Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

PENITENTIAL ACT

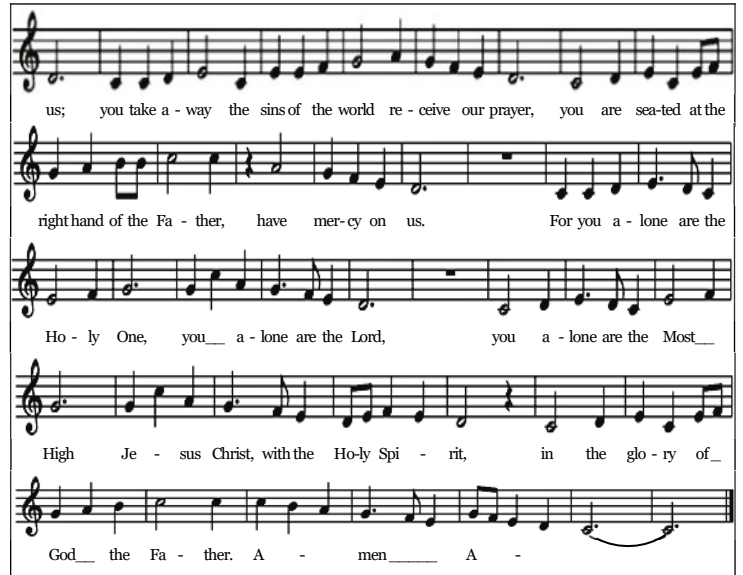

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

(striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Numbers 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied.

Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent; yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp.

So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp," Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said, "Moses, my lord, stop them." But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 19:8, 10, 12-13, 14

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The pre-cepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Psalm Refrain © 1969, 1981, ICEL, All Rights Reserved Psalm Verses © 1963, 1993, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent. Music Copyright © by GIA Publications, Inc All Rights Reserved

The law of the Lord is perfect; it revives the soul. The decrees of the Lord are steadfast; they give wisdom to the simple. R

The fear of the Lord is pure, abiding forever. The judgments of the Lord are true; they are, all of them, just. R

So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect their own errors? From hidden faults acquit me. R

From presumption restrain your servant; may it not rule me.
Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. R

SECOND READING

James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries.
Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like a fire.
You have stored up treasure for the last days.
Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.
You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter.
You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one; he offers you no resistance.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Your word, O Lord, is truth; consecrate us in the truth. R

GOSPEL

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus,
"Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us."
Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him.
There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me.
For whoever is not against us is for us.
Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.
"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.
If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off.
It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire.
And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off.
It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna.
And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out.
Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'"

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM (9:15 AM)
Cantique de Jean Racine

Gabriel Fauré
(1845-1924)

O divine word above, our hope and consolation, Eternal light of the heavens and the earth: our voices greet the morning:
Look down, O Lord, and hear thy people's prayer!

Inspire us, Lord, we pray, With the power of the Spirit, that hell may flee before thy mighty word. From slumber waken us, our weary souls reviving, that we may never forget thy laws!
Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on thy congregation now gathered here in the sight of thy throne; Receive the hymns they offer to thy eternal glory; Renewed by thy gifts may they go forth in peace.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (11:00 AM)

Super flumina Babylonis, illic sedimus et flevimus, dum recordaremur tui, Sion. Upon the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down and we wept, as we remembered you, O Zion.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

SANCTUS

COMMUNION MEDITATION (11:00 AM)

Ave Verum Corpus

Charles Gounod (1818-1893)

Ave, verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine: vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine: cuius latus perforatum unda fluxit sanguine: esto nobis praegustatum, in mortis examine. O dulcis, O pie, O Jesu, Fili Mariae. Miserere mei.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who having truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mankind, whose pierced side flowed with blood: May this be for us a foretaste of the Heavenly banquet in the trial of death. O sweet, O holy, O Jesus Son of Mary, have mercy on me.

CLERGY REFLECTION

This summer I had a four-day silent retreat at a retreat center in Minnesota. The spiritual director, Fr. Hank asked me if I did any kind of recreation. I do a number of activities, but I wouldn't really call them recreation. So, he advised me to find something recreational and do it. So, I dusted off my bow and headed to the archery range; I've been there several times. I also have been to the driving range (golf) several times. Fr. Hank knew the importance of recreation to one's mental and spiritual health.

Starting this Monday, September 30, Clergy Days 2024 begins. It will last until Thursday, October 3. It's held at Cedar Shores Resort just on the other side of the river from Chamberlain. Until I attended my first one in 2021, I really didn't have a clear understanding of what Clergy Days was. So, I thought this might be a good opportunity to explain Clergy Days to you.

As Fr. Hank directed me to find or make some recreation in my life, so Bishop DeGrood desires this for the priests of the diocese. All priests in active ministry are pretty much required to go to Clergy Days, for recreation and relaxing, but also for learning and spiritual growth. Deacons are strongly encouraged to go, but it can be difficult because of commitments to their secular jobs.

Think of Clergy Days as a working vacation. We attend educational sessions, talk business as it relates to our parishes and pastorates and tend to various other ecclesial interests. But we also pray a lot together, we visit with clergy friends we don't see often. We relax, we rest, and we find recreation. Some of us hit the links for a round or two of golf. There's an archery range very nearby. I know Bishop DeGrood likes to get some jogging in. I even know a priest who does some fishing on the river.

In my career, over the decades, I've worked with lazy people and I've worked with "workaholics." None of them I would characterize as happy people. The lazy ones spend much of their time trying to mitigate the guilt they feel deep down stemming from their lack of productivity. The over-workers work long hours much out of insecurity of 'looking bad' in front of the boss. Both of these groups of people lack balance, and hence are not fully realizing Happy, Healthy and Holy in their lives.

Our bishop understands the vital necessity of being Happy, Healthy and Holy, words we've heard often over the past few years. These virtues (or personal attributes) are optimized when we have a prudent balance between work and recreation – take that word apart sometime; "re-create." We know our priests work hard. We see it every day. So, while they are at Clergy Days, hold them up in your prayers. Ask God to optimize Happy, Healthy and Holy for each one of them.

God be with you. Deacon Jon
