28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel. (Verse) Out of the depths have I cried to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

OPENING HYMN 659

THAXTED O God Beyond All Praising

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.

Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.

Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Turn back, O Lord! How long? Show pity to your servants. R

At dawn, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy for the days of our affliction, for the years when we looked upon evil. R

Let your deed be seen by your servants, and your glorious power by their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; give success to the work of our hands. O give success to the work of our hands. R

GLORIA

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters:

Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart.

No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. R

GOSPEL

Mark 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good?"

No one is good but God alone.

You know the commandments: You shall not kill;

you shall not commit adultery;

you shall not steal;

you shall not bear false witness;

you shall not defraud;

honor your father and your mother."

He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth."

Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him,

"You are lacking in one thing.

Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

The disciples were amazed at his words.

So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?"

Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.

All things are possible for God."

Peter began to say to him,

"We have given up everything and followed you."

Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

of the King.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM (11:00 AM)C.V. STANFORDJubilate* in B flat

(1852-1924)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: Serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: It is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves. We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise. Be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name. For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth from generation to generation, his truth endureth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who having truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mankind, whose pierced side flowed with blood: May this be for us a foretaste of the Heavenly banquet in the trial of death. O sweet, O holy, O Jesus Son of Mary.

CLERGY REFLECTION

“Sell what you have, and follow me”

A very big challenge to most Christians of our generation is following Christ with whatever we have. In 1 Timothy 6:10 it says “For the love of money is the root of all evil”. Then following Christ with whatever we have is that we follow our Lord with all the evil we have.

A statement of Jesus ‘Sell what you have’ spiritually sounds repentance, deliverance from every evil, to clean your heart and to have a charitable heart. Growing up in the society which values money more than anything else is not easy to give away what you have, but still this generation wanted to serve God with their sin. Followers of Christ wanted to follow Jesus by acting and leaving against him. True Christian never brings excuses and never justifies his sins and addictions but nowadays Christianity has become ideological party so that everyone can come with his/her ideology and make a group.

For St. Francis Assisi was one of great followers of Christ who left wealth and chose poverty. For St. Francis poverty was more than just an absence of material wealth; it was a spiritual state that brought one closer to God. He believed that by renouncing worldly goods and embracing a life of simplicity, one could experience spiritual richness. The teachings of St. Francis were deeply rooted in Scripture and the Christian tradition. He drew inspiration from the Gospels, particularly from the life of Jesus Christ, who lived in poverty and preached love and compassion for all.

A young man approached Jesus asking how to inherit the kingdom of heaven and to know his status or present situation so that he can be assured for his future life.

Jesus told him to sell out what he has and this is still related to Matthew 16:24, where Jesus says "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me.”

A true disciple of Christ is one that does follow him in duty, and shall follow him to glory. He is one that walks in the same way Christ walked in, is led by his Spirit, and treads in his steps, wherever he goes. Let him deny himself. If self-denial be a hard lesson, it is no more than what our Master learned and practiced, to redeem us, and to teach us. Let him take up his cross.

This it tells us that Jesus Himself is more than the luxurious life we have, so if we choose heavenly luxury, which is Jesus, we don't need earthly luxury.
