29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

LIEBSTER JESU Blessed Jesus, at They Word

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Musical notation for the Responsorial Psalm with lyrics: Lord, let your mer-cy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The word of the Lord is faithful, and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right, and his merciful love fills the earth. R

Yes, the Lord's eyes are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. He is our help and our shield. May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O Lord. R

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. R

GOSPEL Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

You might recall that in January we began the Set Ablaze Pastoral Planning with a town-hall gathering of parishioners from all walks of life. Around 100 people attended to give input to the questions posed to every parish by the Diocese regarding the five pillars of Set Ablaze: Worship & Liturgy; Discipleship & Evangelization; Service; Community; and Schools & Education. The mountain of information from that town-hall was compiled, calculated and categorized. From that report, and input from the Pastorate Planning Committee, a Set Ablaze Pastoral Plan for the Cathedral Pastorate was created and submitted in May.

So, briefly, let me touch on the “aspirational goals” of our Pastorate in a general manner. For the first pillar, Worship & Liturgy: To become THE Cathedral in the United States renowned for restoring the sacred and beautiful within the liturgy, fulfilling in a concrete way the objectives of Sacrosanctum Concilium of Vatican Council II. For the second pillar, Discipleship & Evangelization: To provide more solid catechetical and formational programming for our families, and as the Mother Church of the Diocese, to create an “Institute for Catholic Culture” on our campus making the Cathedral the center of Discipleship & Evangelization. For the third pillar, Service: To make our parish/pastorate more aware of the corresponding need for outreach within our parish and within the Sioux Falls community, taking into account our unique demographic within the parish, and the unprecedented growth of the city. For the fourth pillar, Community: To take advantage of the diverse demographics within our parish that have the potential of creating greater unity and collaboration among parishioners...and...to use our unique role as a civic and historical icon to create community outside of our parish. For the fifth pillar, Schools & Education: To rebuild our religious education programs from the ground up, while utilizing our educational apostolates (St. Joseph Academy and homeschooling groups on campus) and the Bishop O’Gorman Catholic School System to augment a spirit of Catholic culture within our parish.

For all of these “aspirational goals,” we provided a roadmap of sorts as a means of a measuring tool. The good news is that we are already achieving some, if not many of these goals in a practical way. In fact, in a certain sense, Set Ablaze is validating much of the progress and development that has occurred in the parish over the past few years. The Pastorate Committee will continue to monitor our Set Ablaze plan so that we can become a Pastorate alive with the presence of Jesus Christ, and confidently approach the throne of grace.
