LITURGY GUIDE - November 24, 2024

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today!

Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Daniel 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 93:1-2, 5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord is king; he is robed in maj-es-ty.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed. The Lord has robed himself with might; he has girded himself with power. R The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old. From all eternity, O Lord, you are. R Truly your decrees are to be trusted. Holiness is fitting to your house, O lord, until the end of time. R

SECOND READING

Revelations 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! R

GOSPEL John 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

OFFERTORY MOTET (11:00 AM) Ralph Vaughn Williams
O Clap Your Hands (1872-1958)

O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph. For the Lord most high is glorious. He is a great King over all the earth. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.
Sing praises to God; sing praises. Sing praises to our King; sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth. Sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen. God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness. Sing praises unto our King. Sing praises.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Every Thanksgiving in Ipswich, the Morgan boys would put on a colorful array of uniforms old and new advertising a cross section of teams from high school, college and pro teams, thus commencing the annual Morgan Thanksgiving football game. When we were young, it was quite competitive, with feats of play that I believe today would make the ESPN top ten list. As we entered post-secondary education and beyond, it seemed like the pomp and circumstance outweighed anything that happened on the field, like running around in our backyard waving a large Notre Dame flag while singing the ND fight song at the top of our lungs (at least singing the words that we could remember, and humming the rest). As we got older it became a competition to see who could come up with the most outrageous uniform. I always wore my dad's old baseball spikes, worn thin from games of yesteryear. Everybody wanted to be the champ, the king. One year that all changed. As we were doing pregame warm-ups somebody slipped and pulled a groin muscle, another sprained an ankle, and a third one hurt his back. The other two found themselves without a team. The game hadn't even started and the disabled list was almost full. We went from "kings" to "chumps." The writing was on the wall. We had gotten too old and too out of shape to play the annual game anymore. Human fragility had caught up with us. We may grasp for glory here in this world, but what we truly long for, and what can only bring true fulfillment is to be less than "kings" in the next.

On this Christ the King Sunday, Pilate engages Jesus in a dialogue about "just what kind of a king He is." The contrast between these two kingships is evident. Pilate fails to grasp the real meaning of the Lord's words: My kingdom does not belong to this world. Unlike earthly kingdoms, the Lord's is everlasting. Its power comes from the Spirit, and it initiates believers into a realm of love and truth. Yet, as the Lord says, His kingdom has "already come." That is, it's in the here and now, within the physical realm of our earthly existence. Christ is the ruler and king of our lives and of our hearts. Everything we have belongs to the king, and we desire to do and give everything out of love for Him. Perhaps this is why Thanksgiving Day falls within the week of Christ the King Sunday, so that our thanksgiving may be directed towards the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords.

Fr. James Morgan
