LITURGY GUIDE – December 8, 2024

Second Sunday of Advent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances.

Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration.

You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 and 11:00 AM the Introit is sung by the Choir during the Entrance Procession)

*Populus Sion, ecce Dominus veniet ad salvandas gentes: et audiam
faciet Dominus gloriam vocis suae,
in Laetitia cordis vestri. (Verse) Qui regis Israel, intende: qui deducis velut ovem Ioseph.*

O people of Sion, behold, the Lord will come to save the nations, and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart. (Verse) O Shepherd of Israel hear us, you who lead Joseph like a flock!

OPENING HYMN NUN KOMM, DER HEIDEN HEILAND 741 Savior of the Nations, Come

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Baruch 5:1-9

Jerusalem, take off your robe of mourning and misery; put on the splendor of glory from God forever: wrapped in the cloak of justice from God, bear on your head the mitre that displays the glory of the eternal name.

For God will show all the earth your splendor: you will be named by God forever the peace of justice, the glory of God's worship.

Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights; look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God.

Led away on foot by their enemies they left you: but God will bring them back to you borne aloft in glory as on royal thrones.

For God has commanded that every lofty mountain be made low, and that the age-old depths and gorges be filled to level ground, that Israel may advance secure in the glory of God. The forests and every fragrant kind of tree have overshadowed Israel at God's command; for God is leading Israel in joy by the light of his glory, with his mercy and justice for company.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Liturgical for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

When the Lord brought back the exiles of Sion, we thought we were dreaming. Then was our mouth filled with laughter; on our tongues, songs of joy. R

Then the nations themselves said, "What great deeds the Lord worked for them!" What great deeds the Lord worked for us! Indeed, we were glad. R

Bring back our exiles, O Lord, as streams in the south. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. R

They go out, they go out, full of tears, bearing seed for the sowing; they come back, they come back with a song, bearing their sheaves. R

SECOND READING

Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:

I pray always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the gospel from the first day until now.

I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

And this is my prayer:

that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value, so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Music: A. Gregory Murray, OSB, © 1958, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: all flesh shall see the salvation of God. R

GOSPEL

Luke 3:1-6

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the desert.

John went throughout the whole region of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah:

*A voice of one crying out in the desert:
"Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths.
Every valley shall be filled
and every mountain and hill shall be made low.
The winding roads shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth,
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."*

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down
from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Brothers and Sisters,

A blessed 2nd Sunday of Advent to you all. While we continue to prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of Christ, this week is a week of particular rejoicing, especially for us American Catholics.

Typically today, December 8th, would be the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. However, Sundays of Advent take precedence over this great feast, so it is transferred to tomorrow, Monday, December 9th. In 1846, the US Bishops unanimously decided to take Mary, conceived without sin, as the patroness of the United States of America. That being the case, we ought to give greater honor to her, as she continues to intercede for us here in our nation.

On Thursday, we then celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, remembering the apparitions to St. Juan Diego in 1531. St. John Paul II declared her the patroness of all of the Americas. Again, we seek refuge under her patronage, as Christians have done nearly the entire history of the Church.

At Clergy Days in October we heard from Bishop Andrew Cozzens, Bishop of Crookston and also led the Eucharistic Revival and Congress this summer. He shared with us what he has come to call the "Guadalupe Principle." In short, he said that when we look at history, God often acts most profoundly in the darkest of times. Before Mary's apparitions to Juanito in 1531, things looked dismal for the Church in Mexico. The first bishop of Mexico wrote a letter to the Spanish King in the beginning of 1531, saying, "If God does not provide the remedy from His Hand, the land is about to be completely lost." Missionaries had tried but mainly been rejected. The natives had not been treated well by other settlers and colonizers, so in their mind these missionaries were no different, even if they were.

So when the missionary efforts failed, Mary entered in. Appearing as one of them, in a language and appearance they could understand, they are captivated. And with all things Marian, in following her, they are converted to her Son.

This isn't the first time that something like this happens—God doing something profound in the darkest of moments. It's true of history, and it continues to be true for us in our lives. These feasts offer us great hope, that although the darkness may exist, it will never conquer. The Light has come into the world, and His mother, the Star of the Sea, directs us in those moments. May we honor her particularly this week as the patroness of our lands and queen of our lives.

God bless you,

Fr. Klein
