LITURGY GUIDE – January 12, 2025
The Baptism of the Lord

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AND 11:00AM the Introit is sung by the choir, followed by the opening hymn)

Dilexisti iustitiam, et odisti iniquitatem: propterea unxit te Deus, Deus tuus, oleo laetitiae prae consortibus tuis. (Verse) Eructavit cor meum verbum bonum: dico ego opera mea regi.	Your love is for justice; your hatred for evil. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above other kings. (Verse) My heart overflows with noble words. To the king I address the song I have made.

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold,
 my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
 upon whom I have put my spirit;
 he shall bring forth justice to the nations,
 not crying out, not shouting,
 not making his voice heard in the street.
 A bruised reed he shall not break,
 and a smoldering wick he shall not quench,
 until he establishes justice on the earth;
 the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
 I have grasped you by the hand;
 I formed you, and set you
 as a covenant of the people,
 a light for the nations,
 to open the eyes of the blind,
 to bring out prisoners from confinement,
 and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 29:1-2, 3-4, 9-10

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The Lord will bless his peo-ple with his peace.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
 Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Ascribe to the Lord, you heavenly powers, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name; bow down before the Lord, majestic in holiness. R

The voice of the Lord upon the waters, the Lord on the immensity of waters; the voice of the Lord full of power; the voice of the Lord full of splendor. R

The God of glory thunders; in his temple they all cry, “Glory!” The Lord sat enthroned above the flood; the Lord sits as king forever. R

SECOND READING

ACTS 10:34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee
after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.
He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed
by the devil, for God was with him.”

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

John said: One mightier than I is coming;
he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. R

GOSPEL

LUKE 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.

John answered them all, saying,

“I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.

I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals.
He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

And a voice came from heaven,

“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Evangelization. Sometimes that word seems intimidating to us. "I don't know enough about theology." "I don't have that kind of personality." "Other people are smarter than me."

Of course there is a time and place for evangelization through theology and instruction, but sometimes we over complicate it. At its outset, evangelization begins with giving witness. When we see Mary go to Elizabeth at the Visitation, she does not go with a treatise on theology or with the knowledge of a scribe. She goes to share with Elizabeth what the Lord did in her life.

In a reflection on the Epiphany, St. Leo the Great, pope in the 5th Century, said, "The obedience of the star calls us to imitate its humble service; to be servants, as best we can, of the grace that invites all men to find Christ." The star is doing what it ought to do, and in doing so, points to God. St. Leo is calling us to imitate that star, pointing to the Lord. It is what we ought to do. In a dark night, the star lights a path. In the darkness of the world, we are able to shine in the darkness—not to attract people to ourselves, but to point out the Lord.

In order to do that, we first must know the presence of the Lord. Are we able to articulate an encounter that we've had in the Lord? Do we seek out His presence? Evangelization does not need to be complicated, but it does require something of us—faithfulness. As missionary disciples, we don't need to know all the answers all the time, but we do need to be able to give witness to what the Lord has done for us in our lives.

May God bless you and your families in this new year!
