LITURGY GUIDE – February 16, 2025
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AND 11:00AM the Introit is sung by the choir, followed by the opening hymn)

Esto mihi in Deum protectorem, et in locum refugii, ut saluum me facias: quoniam firmamentum meum, et refugium meum es tu: et propter nomen tuum dux mihi eris, et enutries me. (Verse) In te, Domine, speravi, non confundar in aeternum: in iustitia tua libera me.

Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.
(Verse) In you O Lord, do I trust; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the LORD:

Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings,
who seeks his strength in flesh,
whose heart turns away from the LORD.
He is like a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season,
but stands in a lava waste,
a salt and empty earth.
Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
whose hope is the LORD.
He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream:
it fears not the heat when it comes;
its leaves stay green;
in the year of drought it shows no distress,
but still bears fruit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 1:1-2, 3, 4 & 6

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless-ed are they, bless-ed are they who hope in the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Blessed indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the path with sinners, nor abides in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the Lord, and who ponders his law day and night. R

He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season, and whose leaves shall never fade; and all that he does shall prosper. R

Not so are the wicked, not so! For they, like winnowed chaff, shall be driven away by the wind; for the Lord knows the way of the just, but the way of the wicked will perish. R

SECOND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 15:12, 16-20

Brothers and sisters:
If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead?
If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.
Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all.
But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Rejoice and be glad; your reward will be great in heaven. R

GOSPEL

LUKE 6:17, 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon.
And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said:
“Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.
Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.
Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.
Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!
Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.
For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.
But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.
Woe to you who are filled now,
for you will be hungry.
Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will grieve and weep.
Woe to you when all speak well of you,
for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Benedictus es Domine, doce me iustificationes tuas: benedictus es Domine, doce me iustificationes tuas: in labiis meis pronuntiabi omnia iudicia oris tui.	Blessed are you, O Lord, teach me your commandments. O Lord, you are blessed, teach me your commandments. With my lips have I declared all the judgments spoken by your mouth.

OFFERTORY MOTET (11:00 AM)

Samuel S. Wesley

Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace (1810 - 1976)

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee.
The darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day. The darkness and the light to thee, are both alike.
God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forevermore.
Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; they were not disappointed in what they craved.

COMMUNION MEDITATION (11:00 AM)

Children of the Heavenly Father (arr. Paul Christiansen)

Children of the heavenly Father safely in his bosom gather;
Nesting bird nor star in heaven such a refuge e'er was given.

God his own doth tend and nourish, in his holy courts they flourish.
From all evil things he spares them, in his mighty arms he bears them.

Neither life nor death shall ever from the Lord his children sever; unto them his grace he showeth, and their sorrows all he knoweth.

CLERGY REFLECTION

This Sunday's Gospel recounts to us the "Sermon on the Plain." Most people are more familiar with the "Sermon on the Mount," which is Matthew's account of what we hear this weekend in Luke's Gospel. While they do have their particularities, there is one very prominent thing in common: Jesus proposes a different way of seeing reality. Thus, Christians ought to see the world differently.

I remember the first time I heard the story of the North American Martyrs, particularly of St. Isaac Jogues. He sought to bring the saving message of Christ to the Natives in modern-day New York and Canada. He was not received well. He was captured, brutally tortured, and even had his fingers gnawed off so that he couldn't celebrate Mass (he did end up receiving dispensation from Rome to celebrate Mass). In hearing this, I was detested. In hearing Jogues' response, however, I was confused. How was he able to respond, not with hatred or condemnation, but with hope? While the eyes of the world (and my own eyes) see this as physical torture and unjust, he saw it as an opportunity to be more united to the sufferings of Christ. In having a deep union with Jesus, he could see the world and his circumstances differently. "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man." He utterly believed those words.

Every time when we come to Mass and the priest elevates the host, our physical sight sees bread. Yet, with the eyes of faith, we see the true presence of Jesus—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. What to some would appear to be idolatrous, we see as one of the greatest acts of religion possible. As we sing in the Tantum Ergo at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, "Præstet fides supplementum sensuum defectui—May faith provide where senses fail."

We must not be surprised when we see the world differently. We ought to see the world differently. A characteristic of Christians has always been that they live in the world but not of the world. They enter into the world but see beyond it.

May we beg for the grace to see as Jesus sees, and not as the world sees.

Peace,
Fr. Klein
