LITURGY GUIDE – May 4, 2025

Third Sunday of Easter

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please, silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Please, do not take pictures during the Mass celebration. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass.

INTROIT - (At 9:15 AND 11:00AM the Introit is sung by the choir, followed by the opening hymn)

Jubilate Deo omnis terra, alleluia: psalmum dicite nomine eius, alleluia: date gloriam laudi eius, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.
(Verse) Before you all the earth shall bow down, shall sing to you, sing to your name!"

OPENING HYMN 545

GELOBT SEI GOTT
Good Christians All, Rejoice and Sing

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us."

But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13 (Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

I will praise you, Lord, for you have res-cued me.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will extol you, Lord, for you have raised me up, and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have lifted up my soul from the grave, restored me to life from those who sink into the pit. R

Sing psalms to the Lord, you faithful ones; give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts a moment; his favor all through life. At night come tears, but dawn brings joy. R

Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; be my helper, O Lord. You have changed my mourning into dancing. O Lord my God, I will thank you forever. R

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen, " and the elders fell down and worshiped.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Christ is risen, creator of all;
he has shown pity on all people. R

GOSPEL

JOHN 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias.

He revealed himself in this way.

Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples.

Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing."

They said to him, "We also will come with you."

So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something."

So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish.

So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord."

When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea.

The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread.

Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught."

So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish.

Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast."

And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord.

Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.

This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter,

"Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs."

He then said to Simon Peter a second time,

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep."

Jesus said to him the third time,

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time,

"Do you love me?" and he said to him,

"Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go."

He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God.

And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Though we have celebrated the funeral of His Holiness, Pope Francis, we continue to grieve his death for nine days.

Reflecting on his pontificate, I recall one of his most popular decisions that honored the patron saint of our Diocese and Cathedral: He designated 2020 as the Year of St. Joseph. He did this to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Pope Pius IX's declaration of St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. "The greatness of Saint Joseph is that he was the spouse of Mary and the father of Jesus," the Holy Father wrote in his 2020 Apostolic Letter. "In this way, he placed himself, in the words of Saint John Chrysostom, 'at the service of the entire plan of salvation.'" According to Vatican News, Pope Francis wrote the 2020 Apostolic Letter Patris corde, (With a Father's Heart) amid the COVID-19 outbreak, emphasizing the parallel between the patience and hope ordinary people displayed in their trials and the great humility of St. Joseph. The Holy Father described the Christian community's veneration of St. Joseph as a father in a variety of forms, including as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, and an accepting father. Quoting St. Pope John Paul II, Pope Francis wrote, "Saint Joseph was called by God to serve the person and mission of Jesus directly through the exercise of his fatherhood." In this way, the Pope continued with the quote, "He cooperated in the fullness of time in the great mystery of salvation and is truly a minister of salvation."

The Holy Father urged individuals to recall the creative courage of St. Joseph in times of difficulty, reminding them of his steadfast faith and devotion to protect the Holy Family. "At the end of every account in which Joseph plays a role," Pope Francis wrote, "the Gospel tells us that he gets up, takes the child and his mother, and does what God commanded him." Describing St. Joseph as a working father, Pope Francis emphasized the need to recognize the value of honorable work. Calling St. Joseph the "exemplary patron" of dignified work, the apostolic letter read, "Saint Joseph was a carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family. From him, Jesus learned the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one's own labor." Pope Francis exhorted fathers to draw their inspiration from St. Joseph, emphasizing his example of self-gift. "When he [a father] becomes like Joseph," the Holy Father wrote, "who always knew that his child was not his own, but had merely been entrusted to his care. In the end, this is what Jesus would have us understand when he says: 'Call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven.'"
