THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.

While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them.

They said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trum-pets for the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, is awesome, the great king over all the earth. R

God goes up with shouts of joy. The Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God; sing praise! Sing praise to our king; sing praise! R

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God reigns over the nations. God sits upon his holy throne. R

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 1:17-23

Brothers and sisters:

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him.

May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might: which he worked in Christ,

raising him from the dead

and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come.

And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Go and teach all nations, says the Lord;

I am with you always, until the end of the world. R

GOSPEL

LUKE 24:46-53

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

You are witnesses of these things.

And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven.

They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and they were continually in the temple praising God.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Recently, when the weather was cold and wet, I bumped into one of the workers from the construction company next door to my office. The boss had called the crew in from their muddy sites, to call it a day. It was just too messy to work. I lamented to one of the guys about how he had to yield to the weather. I was struck by his response, "We need the rain."

Instead of complaining about working in the mud, or worse, not earning any pay for the rest of the day, his thoughts were directed to the farmers who needed proper subsoil moisture for their crops. And I thought to myself, what a nice attitude, so appropriate for the season of Easter. It was so simple. He was just seeing the silver lining on the cloud, making lemonade from lemons. He didn't have to work at it. It seemed so natural to him. I wish I could do that . . . but I can. This Easter season I've been working at finding joy – no matter how little – in those things that don't appear to have joy. After all, is this not how Easter Season began?

Beginning with the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, through the Passion and finally the death of Jesus, there isn't much joy there. But, we know how this story ends. It ends with great joy, it ends with the Resurrection – and soon, the Ascension. The Resurrection is the ultimate act of making lemonade from lemons. Jesus' Resurrection is what turned a simple Roman execution into an infinite and eternal act of redemption for all mankind. Joy barely even begins to describe it.

Just as we practiced moments of penance during Lent, let's now look for moments of joy during this Easter season, and not just moments of joy . . . let's look for opportunities to express our gratitude. There are thousands of members of St. Joseph Cathedral and St. Josephine Bakhita community; imagine the positive impact we can have if we all borrow from that construction worker, and borrow from the lesson of Easter, when we express joy and thanks every opportunity we can.

God be with you. - Deacon Jonathan
