THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 12:1-11

In those days, King Herod laid hands upon some members of the Church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also.

–It was the feast of Unleavened Bread.–

He had him taken into custody and put in prison under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each.

He intended to bring him before the people after Passover. Peter thus was being kept in prison, but prayer by the Church was fervently being made to God on his behalf.

On the very night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter, secured by double chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while outside the door guards kept watch on the prison.

Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him and a light shone in the cell.

He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, “Get up quickly.”

The chains fell from his wrists.

The angel said to him, “Put on your belt and your sandals.” He did so.

Then he said to him, “Put on your cloak and follow me.” So he followed him out, not realizing that what was happening through the angel was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

They passed the first guard, then the second, and came to the iron gate leading out to the city, which opened for them by itself.

They emerged and made their way down an alley, and suddenly the angel left him.

Then Peter recovered his senses and said,

“Now I know for certain that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people had been expecting.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

The an-gel of the Lord will res-cue those who fear him.

Text: Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc.

I will bless the Lord at all times; praise of him is always in my mouth. In the Lord my soul shall make its boast; the humble shall hear and be glad. R

Glorify the Lord with me; together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord, and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R

Look toward him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This lowly one called; the Lord heard, and rescued him from all his distress. R

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them. Taste and see that the Lord is good. Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him. R

SECOND READING

2 TIMOTHY 4:6-8, 17-18

I, Paul, am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.

From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.

The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it.

And I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly Kingdom.

To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. R

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 16:13-19

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples,

“Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”

They replied, “Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Simon Peter said in reply,

“You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Jesus said to him in reply, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.

And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.

Amen

CLERGY REFLECTION

I think the most freedom I ever experienced was during those first two weeks of summer after elementary school let out. All the commitments that go with being a student were gone for an entire summer. I had the whole summer to look forward to, to do pretty much whatever I wanted without the encumbrance of academic responsibilities.

That experience of liberty was strong the first few weeks of summer because I didn't have a sense of the finality of summer. It was as if it would last forever. I lived in the moment. I never pondered how short summer really was. . . until the end of June. That's when I inevitably realized that one third of my summer was already gone, yet it felt as if it had only just begun.

Through July, I felt that same sense of liberty but it was diminished because I was even more aware that my summer was limited. This put a little cloud over me. I lost some of that casual, laissez-faire spirit. I lost some sense of living in the moment. And, in August, with only two weeks of summer left, it was all but gone. All I could do was lament how quickly my summer slipped by and how little remained. I stopped living in the moment.

We are now at the end of June. One third of this summer is already gone. This is a good time to check ourselves to make sure we aren't lamenting memories or regrets of the past, or worrying about future challenges. Live in the moment – enjoy today as it is, a unique gift from God. If you want something to feel as if it will last forever then the thing to do is to make it timeless. One does this by living in the moment.

“The Practice of the Presence of God” is a book by the seventeenth century French discalced monk, Brother Lawrence (Paraclete Press version is best). The book shares Brother Lawrence's life of contemplating God's presence continually throughout the day. Like golf, it's a simple concept to fathom, but difficult to master. Whatever your “handicap” is, this summer, spend some time in contemplative prayer.

To God there is no past and there is no future; there is only the eternal present. We can share in this divine and eternally present moment when we Practice the Presence of God. This is the great fruit of contemplative prayer.

God be with you. Deacon Jonathan Eckrich.
