THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 66:10-14c

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her,
all you who love her;
exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her!
Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort,
that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts!
For thus says the LORD:

Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river,
and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent.
As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort.

When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass;
the LORD's power shall be known to his servants.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise. Say to God, "How awesome your deeds!" R

"Before you all the earth shall bow down, shall sing to you, sing to your name!" Come and see the works of God:
awesome his deeds among the children of men. R

He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot. Let our joy, then, be in him; he rules forever by his might. R

Come and hear, all who fear God; I will tell what he did for my soul. Blest be God, who did not reject, nor withhold from me his merciful love. R

SECOND READING

GALATIANS 6:14-18

Brothers and sisters:

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation.
Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God.

From now on, let no one make troubles for me;
for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONPlease Stand(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts;
let the word of Christ dwell in you richly. R

GOSPEL*Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit.
He said to them,
"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.
Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves.
Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way.
Into whatever house you enter, first say,
'Peace to this household.'
If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.
Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment.
Do not move about from one house to another.
Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them,
'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'
Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say,
'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.'
Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand.
I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town."

The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said,
"Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name."
Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky.
Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

PROFESSION OF FAITHPlease Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen

CLERGY REFLECTION

On two Saturdays in June, the Cathedral priests said five Masses on the Cathedral campus. Five Masses in one day! I bring this up because it's important to know that there is a lot happening, daily, at the Cathedral. You probably already know that. Yet, please pray for your priests and deacons. At times it can be a bit overwhelming when you add in everything else that is expected of us.

However, like the Psalmist who penned today's psalm, we "cry out to God with joy!" Why? Because doing God's work as ministers of His Word and Sacrament is living and effective, like the results that the 72 disciples witness in today's Gospel. Many times we don't see these results, but we still trust that God is doing His work through the power of the Holy Spirit. This is what we call the "gift of faith." Not only priests and deacons, but all the faithful of the Church pray for "results" in their lives, and many times God seems silent on the issue. Remember though, if God ever ignored us, we would cease to exist. He affirms us with our every heartbeat. He speaks to us on His terms all the time, and I don't mean just through His creation. He speaks to us by the gift of faith that He has given us. He speaks to us from every sacramental we have ever gazed upon. But most of all He speaks to us from the Chalice on the altar which contains the Blood that Jesus willingly shed for us.

Think of this: We are attracted to "the good" in things and then love them for that reason. But when God loves things, He makes them lovable just by loving them. When we look at a crucifix and see how much He loves us, we grasp just how lovable we are! All of this is Jesus speaking to us. But we have to be focused on Him and not what we "want" from Him. As for the good feelings that we want, the Lord obviously has not determined that they would be the best for us at any given time, but still has a plan to grant us His consolation. St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta never experienced consolation in prayer for 20 years, yet Our Lord still spoke to her through the invisible graces she still received. I'm sure if she were here, she would tell us that such gratification is worth waiting for.

And so, let me quote from one of my favorite scripture passages: "Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, and persevere in prayer" (Rom. 12:12).

And never, never give up!

Fr. James Morgan
