THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot.

Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said:

"Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way."

The men replied, "Very well, do as you have said."

Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah,

"Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls."

He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it.

Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate.

They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?"

He replied, "There in the tent."

One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 15:2-3, 3-4, 5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

He who does jus - tice will live in the pres - ence of the Lord.

Text: The Revised Grail Psalms, © 2010, Conception Abbey and The Grail, admin. by GIA Publications, Inc.;
refrain tr. © 1969, ICEL.
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc.

Whoever walks without fault; who does what is just, and speaks the truth from his heart; whoever does not slander with his tongue. R

Who does no wrong to a neighbor, who casts no slur on a friend, who looks with scorn on the wicked, but honors those who fear the Lord. R

Who lends no money at interest, and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a one shall never be shaken. R

SECOND READING

COLOSSIANS 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters:

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past.

But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory.

It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Please Stand
(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Blessed are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance. R

GOSPEL Luke 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him.

She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak.

Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me."

The Lord said to her in reply,

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.

There is need of only one thing.

Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

PROFESSION OF FAITH Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen

CLERGY REFLECTION

I have learnt and have come to realize that the Kunama weddings are more expensive to the extent that men have to work as truck drivers for some years for them to get married.

I was investigating the youth in the community about why they can't get married but living together. Their first answer is that they can't afford because it has a lot of expenses. The question is 'who is pushing them to expand their weddings?' It is tradition of the community to legalize that you are married by inviting and feeding the whole community. It is not a must to have this kind of a big wedding in a sacramental marriage.

On June 28, 2025 we had six couples' marriage con-validations for elders and it was a simple and wonderful celebration.

Marriage Matters - because it is a bond between a man and a woman. The Church has taught through the ages that "Marriage is an exclusive relationship between one man and one woman." (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Marriage: Love and Life in the Divine Plan, p. 7). Christian marriage is not about celebration or feasting but sacramental Marriage is the "foundation for the family, where children learn the values and the virtues that will make good Christians as well as good citizens." Marriage is one of the Church's sacraments. "As a sacrament, marriage signifies and makes present to the couple Christ's total self-giving love."

I have decided to help the community to not waste their money in useless things and especially I encourage the couples who live together, without sacramental marriage, in order to get easy way to join church sacraments. Many of them say that they don't want to come and attend Mass without receiving Blessed Sacrament. A group wedding will help a lot of refugees to get financial freedom and to raise their children with Christian values.
